THE worst enow storm for years raged along the Northern I. C. Railway, between Campbelton and St. Flavie, on Saturday night last, delaying all trains. THE second of the Lenten conferences in St. Dunstan's Cathedral was given on Sunday evening hast by Rev Ignatius McDenald. His text was from the 26th verse of the second chapter of the Episule of St. James: "As the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without good works is dead." The Rev. preacher pointed out that although faith was absolutely necessary for salvation it was not sufficient. In proof of this he cited the words of St. Faul and several other texts of Holy Write and showed that this doctrine has always been taught and practised by the Cathello church and inculcated by her doctors and teachers down through the ages. Divine faith enlivened by good works ensure eternal happiness hereafter.

and proclaim to the inhabitants of Crete the fact that the powers would be responsible for the future of the Island. In the meantime, he said, preparations were being made for the pstablishment of an autonomous administration in the Island. Hon. T. W. Ligh asked if the Cretans would understrad what autonomy meant. Mr. Curson: "Considering the fact that the Cretans have been agitating for autonomy for a hundred years, it amy be assumed that they know the meaning of autonomy, and now it may clearly be understood that the Island will not revert to the Sultan," (Cheers.)
