What Would You Give To be cured of Catarrh? If you or your friends have this disease, you mow how disagreeable it is. Its ymptoms are inflamed eyes, thrcbbing temples, ringing noises in the ears, headsches, capricious appetite, and constant discharge of mucus. Fortunately its cure is not a question of what you will give, but what you will take. If you will take Hood's arssparills, the great constitutional remedy, which thoroughly purifier, enriches and vitalizes the blood, you may expect to be completely and permanently cured. The good blood which Hood's Sarsaparilla makes, reaching the delicate passages of the builds the tissues and ultimately cures all symptoms of catarrh.
