NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 1921

VOL. XLIX.

NO. 21

Look. Read. Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!! We study the business. We know what suits a young man we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00

Success Is a Habit

Our habits make us. We are creatures of habit. Whether we are a success or a failure is a question of how we do things without thinking. To save is the only way to success.

Gloves

We have just the kind of Gloves you need lined and unlined. Also Wool Gloves for this time of year. Suedes and Tans—both combination. Price..... $1.00 to $4.00

Thoughts For Waking Hours

A day is short, and when the time for its setting has come no power on earth can prolong it one moment. It would be a fearful thing for us were the acceptable day to end and we had not availed of it for salvation, says The Pilot.

There is no creature so little and so contemptible as not to manifest the goodness of God.

Love of God will show us that well-filled barns or bank accounts may be the possession of the fool, whose soul may be required in the night.

The worker is the royal man with the dignity that comes from the consciousness of service done to God and man. In the new heaven and the new earth, of which he is a pioneer, he will take his place among the citizens of the kingdom of God.

For every good deed of ours the world will be better always. And, perhaps, no day does a man walk down the street cheerfully and like a child of God without some passer, unknown to himself, catching from his look a something of religion.

We are making habits, good habits, bad habits, all our lives. In our childhood we are taught habits, and as we grow older we make them for ourselves. If our parents have been wise and taught us habits of tidiness, control of temper, and how to be kindly and considerate towards others, while we are still children, we shall find ourselves launched out in life with a good capital.

Vocations to the religious state ought to receive every encouragement from priests and parents. How happy the families with daughters dedicated to God's service! A great Saint said: "Virgins who have the happiness of dedicating themselves to the love of Jesus Christ by consecrating to Him the lily of their purity are as dear to God as His Angels." Does not Our Lord say, "They shall be like the angels in heaven?"

Nothing can discourage the man who persists in remaining undiscouraged. Discouragement is not a matter of the circumstances which surround us—the failures that line our path in the rear and the obstacles that block our way ahead. We may have disappointments and difficulties without number—but what of that?

A Bright Day In Darkened Lives

In acknowledging an offering sent to her, Sister Marie Suzanne, a Little Sister of Mary devoting her life to the lepers of Makogai in the Fiji Islands, gives a vivid pen picture of one of the events that come to cheer the dreadful existence of the lepers. The offering was intended to help build a chapel, as at present the nuns and their charges have only a native Fijian hut.

Here is the letter: "Today was a great occasion for us lepers, and for us as well: it was the Feast of the Assumption, and one of our patients received his first Communion."

"In the morning everyone was washed, sores dressed, best clothes put on, which consist of old coats given by charitable people and two yards of calico. The best among the lepers, that is to say those who have no bad sores, took their weaker friends on their backs and bore them to the chapel. It was raining, and the rain was getting inside, but no body seemed to mind that very much; they squeezed themselves together in the dry places, and at Holy Mass, said by Rev. Father Nicolson, S.M., they sang loudly their best songs to Our Lady. I must say it was loudly, but not harmoniously, as the voices of lepers have a peculiar raucous tone.

"Amongst all these poor lepers covered with sores, with their faces swollen and marked with sores, the lame and the blind, you would have noticed a young man about twenty-five years of age, very tall, but so thin as to be almost a shadow. His mutilated limbs and his persistent cough would have told you at once that he was suffering from two terrible diseases, leprosy and tuberculosis. Yet in his face you could have read joy and peace, because he had at last been permitted to partake of the Body of Our Lord.

"After the prayers of thanksgiving, in which we remembered our benefactors, Rev. Mother gave the patients a little feast, which consisted of two biscuits each and some canned salmon.

"This event is just an episode in our lives here, but we do all we can to lighten the sufferings of the lepers and to lead them into the paths of eternal bliss."

Cloistered Artists

Art is coming into its own again among us. We seem to be coming to realize that it does not belong solely to art galleries and in the palaces of the rich, but in everyday things used by everyday people.

We have to hang our heads and admit that our art, and especially our architecture, is as yet, in general, almost nothing in comparison with the mediæval Catholic cathedrals and churches and their contents. And yet it seems impossible to discover the names of the architects who conceived the plans of some of these awe-inspiring edifices. We see the results of their wonderful genius; we should like to achieve something that faintly resembles them; but we do not easily see the workings of the minds and hands which fashioned them.

We view with wonder some of the remnants which remain of the exquisite illuminated manuscripts of the Ages of Faith. They seem to our modern eyes almost too beautiful to be used for practical purposes, but we see that they fitted into a most beautiful scheme of things in which almost everything which was used appears to have been beautiful in a useful way. We do not see, however, the quiet work in his cloister at work on one of these gems of the illuminator's art. His identity was probably buried in the unity of the community of which he was a member. Both he and his superiors seem to have taken it for granted that things should be done as beautifully as possible, and that whatever time was necessary for the process should be devoted to it.

We see the results of the great spread of Christianity in its first ages. But we do not see the budding fervor which nurtured the planting of the Faith, in the Catacombs, during its persecutions. We see the results of the great civilizing influences which the Church sent out into the rude society of her early ages. But we do not see the quiet toll of the monks and religious men and women who taught and worked to that end among others.

DO YOUR BOWELS

Move Regularly, or Do They BECOME CONSTIPATED?

If the truth were only known it would be found that half the ills of life are caused by constipation, for when the bowels cease to work properly, all the organs of the body become deranged. A free motion of the bowels, every day, should be the rule of everyone who aspires to perfect health.

Keep your bowels regular by the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and you will have no constipation, no bilious or sick headaches, or any other troubles arising from a wrong action of the liver or bowels.

Mrs. G. Brown, Lewistown, N.B., writes: "I have been troubled for years with constipation, and trying various so-called remedies, which did me no good whatsoever. I was persuaded by a friend to try Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills. They have done me worlds of good. They are indeed a splendid pill and I can heartily recommend them to all who suffer from constipation."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25c. a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

How To Have Good Citizens.

Out of good homes come good men. And good men are always good citizens, says the Catholic Standard and Times. They need no special training in citizenship.

A good home implants the social instincts and inculcates the social virtues. Where we find good and cheerful homes social unrest does not become acute and social discontent does not embitter the soul and inflame the passions. Bolshevism is born in hovels and in the vile slums of back alleys.

Our attention must be more centered upon the home. We have of late given too much thought to education and moral improvement by legislation which neither educates nor improves. If the old-time home sentiment is revived, our national life will be clean and sane and will prevail. No one whose cradle was sheltered by the roof of a happy home, whose childhood was brightened by the sunny atmosphere of contented family life, whose youth was surrounded by the stern righteousness of a good father, the gentle care of a fond mother and the love of brothers and sisters, will ever raise his hand against society in murderous envy or hateful revenge.

A SENSIBLE MERCHANT.

Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders give women prompt relief from monthly pains, and have no bad after effects whatever. Be sure you get Milburn's. Price 25 cents a box.

Smith—I see them fellows took a drop.

Jones—Took a drop? L. should say they took the whole bottle.

W. H. O. Wilkinson Streetford says—"It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatic Pills. Price 25 cents a box.

Hearing a crash of glassware one morning, Mrs. Blank called to her maid in the adjoining room. "Norah, what on earth are you doing?"

"I'm doing nothin', mum," replied "Norah; it's done."

Kidneys Troubled Her.

BACK ACHE SO BAD COULD NOT SLEEP.

The epidemic of "Flu" has a great deal to be responsible for. In nearly every case it has left some bad after effects, and in a great many cases it is the kidneys that have suffered.

When the kidneys have been left in a weakened state, very often some serious kidney trouble will follow if not attended to. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove to be just the remedy you require to strengthen them.

Miss Florence Barnshaw, Appleton, Ont., writes—"Last winter, after I had the 'Flu' I was troubled with my kidneys. My back ached so I could not sleep, and my aches were so bad I could not walk. A neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I got two boxes, and before I had the first one taken, I felt a change. I cannot recommend your medicine enough."

Be sure and get Doan's Kidney Pills when you ask for them. An oblong gray box with a red trade mark; price 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
