

L.C.A. Sale
of Work Closes

The Ladies' College Aid Society continued their Sale of Work at the Methodist College Hall last evening up to eleven o'clock. It was a brilliant success and there was a larger number of visitors than on the opening day. A specially attractive feature was the grand concert which the management had gone to the trouble to arrange. The programme was as follows:

Organ Solo—Mr. A. Mews.
Song—"Temple Bells"—Miss Herder.
Pianoforte Solos, by Grieg—Miss Rogers.
Song, "I'll Sing Three Songs of Arabia"—Mr. F. Seymour.
Madrigal from Mikado—Mrs. Hue.
Miss Russell, Messrs. H. Taylor and F. Hughes.
Song, "Until"—Miss J. Strang.
Song, "Drake Goes West"—Mr. Hughes.
Violin Solo, "Canzonetta"—Miss S. Johnson.
Quartette—"Sweet and Low."

The concert was under the direction of Mr. P. J. King who, in his own inimitable style, acted as accompanist. The various items of the programme were creditably executed, and each performer had to respond to an encore. After the concert the sale was continued and at closing hour nearly all the goods were sold. The proceeds of the affair were up to the expectations of the lady promoters who were responsible for making the sale a success it was and, who deserve every credit for their zealous work. The amount taken will be devoted to the funds of the College.

Rough Trip.

The schooner Little Pet arrived in port last evening from Oporto. The passage was made in twenty-five days. The vessel had moderate weather until coming on this coast. About a week ago a terrific north west storm was encountered in which the Pet was badly buffeted. The gale lasted for three days during which time the decks were constantly awash by the heavy seas. The vessel had her main boom broken, her mastsail carried away as well as having her sail badly torn. She brought as cargo—wine, corkwood and fruit to A. F. Kendall & Co.

Enjoyable Time.

A very enjoyable time was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Willar, Prospect Street, on Wednesday night last, they having entertained a number of friends to celebrate their silver wedding, and also a few friends of Mr. Donald Willar, recently married to Miss Lillian Shaw. After supper had been partaken of, Mr. Charles Hamlyn proposed the health of Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Willar, and Mr. James Bulger proposed the health of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Willar, after which songs and games were indulged in. The enjoyable event was brought to a close at midnight by the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

RETURNING FOR CHRISTMAS.
The express which arrived yesterday had the previous one, brought over 200 men who came over by the Bruce from Sydney. More than half of these got off the train at different points to go home for the Christmas holidays and others came on here to proceed to Conception Bay.

Schoolgirl's
Exhausted Nerves

Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Weakness Overcome by Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food.

At about the age that most girls are working hardest at school studying for examinations there are important physiological changes taking place which are an additional strain on the nervous system.
Mrs. Gallop has had experience in the cases of her daughter and granddaughter, and for this reason her letter is particularly interesting to parents.
Mrs. J. A. Gallop, 135 Victoria street, St. John, N.B., whose husband is a carpenter, states:—"We have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in our family for nervousness, headaches, dizziness and nervous dyspepsia, and have found them satisfactory in every particular. My daughter Bessie was going to school, and became quite run down in health. By the time she had used three boxes of this remedy her nerves were steady, her general health was excellent and she was entirely free from headaches and dizzy spells. We are more than pleased with the results of this treatment."
"More recently we used the Nerve Food for my granddaughter, who was out of school for nearly a year from nervous trouble, and noticed improvement in her condition at once."
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

The Magistrate's
Story.

What He Owe to Zam-Buk.

Mr. C. E. Sanford, of Weston, King's Co., N.S., a Justice of the Peace for the country and a deacon of the Baptist Church in Berwick, says: "I have used Zam-Buk for piles and found it a splendid remedy it cured me."
Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Prince Albert, Sask., writes: "I must thank you for the benefit I have received from the use of Zam-Buk. Last summer I had a fever, which left me with piles. I started to use Zam-Buk and found it gave me relief, so I continued with it. After using three or four boxes it effected a complete cure."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, eczema, blood-poison, arctic sores, scalp sores, ringworm, and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries generally. At druggists and stores sell at 50c. per box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, upon receipt of price. Be warned against harmful imitations and substitutes. See the registered name "Zam-Buk" on every package before buying.

Bishop March
Home Again.

His Lordship Bishop March, of Harbor Grace, arrived here by the S. S. Florizel this morning. His Lordship who was accompanied by Rev. Dr. Whalen, his chaplain, was treated at St. Vincent's Hospital for stomach trouble. Dr. Stenort being his physician. His Lordship has, we are glad to learn, regained his former robust health.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Gentlemen.—Last winter I received great benefit from the use of MINARD'S LINIMENT in a severe attack of LaGrippe, and I have frequently proved it to be very effective in cases of inflammation.

Women Form
New Society

To Abolish Custom of Exchanging Christmas Presents.

New York, Nov. 15.—Mrs. August Belmont, Miss Annie Morgan, and other prominent New York women are among the founders of a new organization, "The Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving." The Society will do its utmost to abolish the "exchange" system of Christmas giving among those who can ill-afford it. "Instead of being a season of true and simple pleasure making," said Mrs. Belmont, "Christmas has become a serious burden to thousands of working girls. The Christmas-giving custom may have originated in the mind of some kind person, but it is a custom in trouble and hurt feelings."

The easiest method of adjusting a hem is to measure a skirt which fits one. Take the length at the front, sides and back. The intermediate space can easily be regulated.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, Dec. 5.
An armistice between Greece and Turkey will be concluded in a day or two, according to a despatch from Constantinople.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 5.
Reports from the Prairie Province show that cold weather has set in. Zero temperatures have been recorded in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, and in Winnipeg 19 below zero.

LONDON, Dec. 5.
Sir Edward Grey declared to-day that although the proposed ambassadorial conference in London was making progress towards realization, it had not yet been definitely decided by all the European Powers, whether the moment was opportune or not.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.
It has just been learned that the Prince of Wales was operated on for adenoids before going to Paris to be the guest of the Marquis and Marquise de Breteville. The operation was successful. Since it took place the Prince, now at Oxford, has made most gratifying progress in his studies. He is fast becoming an athlete, going in for running and football.

LONDON, Dec. 5.
A St. Petersburg despatch to the Daily Mail says that the Czarevitch is still confined to bed with the doctors in continual attendance. It is uncertain whether he will ever recover the use of his leg. The Czar and Czarina did not believe the illness a grave one until Dr. Fedoroff the specialist, saw the prince at Castle Spalo. He will probably go to Gagrat on the Black Sea.

LONDON, Dec. 5.
According to the latest available estimates the casualty list up to the signing of the armistice, is:—

	Killed.	Wounded.
Turkey	20,000	100,000
Bulgaria	10,000	40,000
Serbia	3,500	15,000
Montenegro	800	5,500
Greece	300	2,200
Total	34,600	163,200

PARIS, Dec. 5.
France's position in the present tense situation is thus summed up by Premier Poincaré:—"The programme of France is, first, continuity in our Foreign policies, and consequently the practice and preservation of our alliances and friendships; second, sincere and continued efforts to secure the peace of Europe; third, above all a firm and calm resolution to secure respect for our rights, and maintain our national dignity free from all possible attack. France speaks from all possible European situation. We stand by our allies."

OTTAWA, Dec. 5.
In a crowded House this afternoon Premier Borden said, in part:—"Having inquired what form any immediate aid that Canada might give, would be the most effective, we have no hesitation in answering, after prolonged consideration of all the circumstances, that it is desirable such aid should include the provision of a certain number of the largest and strongest ships of war that science can build or money supply. The Admiralty placed the cost of modern battleships, with armaments, at $2,350,000. The cost of three such ships would be about $7,050,000. We ask the people of Canada, through their parliament, to grant that sum to His Majesty, to increase the effective naval forces of the Empire, to safeguard our shores and sea-borne commerce, and to make sure of the common heritage of all who owe allegiance to the King. The ship will be at the disposal of His Majesty, for the common defence of the Empire. They will be maintained and controlled as part of the Royal Navy and we have the assurance that, if at any time, it should be the will of the Canadian people to establish a Canadian unit of the British Navy, the vessels can be recalled by the Canadian Government and form a part of the Navy. The ships will be built in British yards under supervision of the Admiralty, as there are now no adequate building facilities in Canada. I submit here the cost would be an additional $12,000,000. Attention will be given to the establishment of ship building in Canada, and the Admiralty is willing to place orders here, at first for small vessels. Canada is sending these three ships to range themselves in the battle line of the Empire with those of the Mother Country, Australia and New Zealand. They will be three of the most powerful battleships in the world, and will bear historic names, associated with this country. The problem of representation in the councils of the Empire is being studied, and, in the meantime, the presence of a Canadian minister will be welcomed in London, during the whole or any part of the year, to attend the meetings of the Imperial Defence Committee. Special arrangements will be also made to give Canadians the opportunity of serving, as officers on the Canadian ships."

Good Losers.

Dear Woodrow Wilson: Let me say how glad I am you won! And now the smoke has cleared away, and all the shouting's done, it won't be out of place, I guess, to take the liberty of telling you that your success was largely due to me. I organized three Wilson clubs at Mudville-on-the-Hill, when all the other village clubs stood up for Ted or Bill. While others raved about the flag and made a frightful din, I wore a red bandana rag and Woodrow Wilson pin! I punched old Billy Billed's head, and thus rebuked his crimes, when he came round one day and said that you would bring hard times. I had your picture on my porch to paralyze your foes, and packed around a big tin torch which leaked and spoiled my clothes. My pup's named Woodrow and my cat your honored surname bears; an old-time Allen Thurman hat your correspondent wears. I've yelled my larynx out of joint, and now that you've the chance, your faithful friend you should appoint ambassador to France. Don't lay this claim of mine aside for less important things; an audience should be denied to statesmen, consuls, kings, till you've rewarded those who wore your colors in the fray, till you have honored those who bore the burden of the day.

IN BAD PLIGHT.—By the express yesterday there arrived an old man named William Rough, a former resident of Trinity, who has been out of the country for 40 years and has lived for some time at Antigonish. He recently became very ill, was in St. Martha's Hospital for sometime, and returned here to spend the last of his days. He has no friends left in the country, is still unwell and was taken by Mr. Whiteway to Hospital.
