Strength At The Front Now - 605.

9th August, 1916.
 Dear Sir, -Yesterday His Excellency the Governor received by mail from Captain Timewell of the Pay and Record Office the Nominal Roll of the First Battalion of the Newfoundland Regiment in France on July 18th, showing the strength of the Battalion in France on that date to be 20 officers and 406 of all other ranks—in all, 426; likewise a list of two drafts that left the Depot at Ayr to reinforce the Battalion, namely, the 8th draft which left Ayr on July 8th, comprising 149 men, and the 9th draft which left Southampton on July 15th, comprising 30 men, or a total of 179 men, which brought the strength of the Battalion in France on July 18th up to 605 officers and men. I am forwarding you these lists with a request that you publish the same in your columns for the information of the relatives and friends of the men, and the general public. I have the honour to be, Sir,
 Your obedient servant,
 J. BENNETT,
 Colonial Secretary.

The Best Rubber Footwear

EVER WORN
Is the Goodrich "Hipress."

Ask for the Red-Line
 You men who live in your boots and give them the very hardest wear—want these great brown boots with the "Red-Line" around the top. They'll outlast any other boot you ever made—
Goodrich "HIPRESS" Rubber Footwear
 Brown—with the "RED-LINE"
 The rubber in these boots is Goodrich's Auto Stock—so tough it will actually outwear steel!
 These boots are made by a new process—used by tanks, the old style black boots—had rubber under the tread—every pore open—water and mud—didn't seep in—they can't crack, leak, pull or pull apart.

Obituary.
 The death occurred at his residence, 63 Patrick Street, last evening of John Baird. The deceased who had been ailing for the past five years of paralysis was for upwards of 30 years in the employ of Job Bros. & Co., by whom he was highly esteemed. He leaves behind him a widow and two sons, George salesman at H. J. Brown's, and James book-keeper at P. C. O'Driscoll's, also two brothers and five sisters, one of the latter residing in Boston, Mass. Funeral takes place on Friday, at 2.30 p.m.

Health Hints.
 Have you ever noticed a bread wagon with the doors wide open and the dust and dirt from the street blowing in over the bread? Just stop and think of the dirt, and you will always ask your grocer for Lynch's Bread wrapped and sealed by machinery in a dust and germ-proof wrapper.—Jy15,16

Amusements.
IMMENSE CROWDS AT NICKEL.
 The Nickel Theatre was crowded at both sessions yesterday, the principal attraction being "The Eagle's Nest" in which Edwin Arden played the leading part. The whole programme was one of exceptional interest and afforded satisfaction to all. (This evening the show will be repeated and we are certain there will be crowded houses again. The charming orchestra of the finer Florizel will be in attendance this evening. The members are well known for their high class selections and all will be
