Pansy Gives Her Thanks.

Government House,
August 11, 1917.
To Editor of Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—May I ask you to kindly let me thank all my good friends and the well wishers of our success, for the many generous gifts to my stall. Yes, I did enjoy myself, and so did my little mistress. Dear Jenny, the only Donkey in Newfoundland, was a real treat to give so many rides. Many thanks, I love to hear your voice, it sounds so well (at a distance). Yes, you and your master did get so tired. But you have helped to make some little girls and boys cosy for the winter, and it was real hard work for you, too. Then comes Blue-bell and Mary, the goats, who gave such nice drives to so many little friends; they, too, got very tired, so did their hard working companion who willingly shared their heavy load. I have to thank the two kind friends who worked so hard for my stall, and sold all the goods for me, also the generous buyers.

Dear little Rex, many thanks to your mistress who helped us sell our candies, and you lucky chappie just enjoying yourself in the lovely country. I hope you are still learning to sing. Dear Friend still catching rats, you have a dear friend who gives you such big rewards.
Many thanks. We all send love to Topsy's mistress. We did miss her.
We thank our cheerful and very loyal friend, Mr. Cole, for the offer of his boat swings, but we could not get the strong posts; not one of our wood merchants had any in stock. I felt very sad about that, so many of the jolly lads and lassies asked me where they were. I am in hopes some kind friend will send some posts not less than 17 feet then we shall always have them. Swings are always in the fashion you know, and some old folks like them just as much as the young.

Well, friends, we all set out to be happy and I believe we well succeeded. It is just as well to take things as they come along and be happy while we can.
I shall have a small sale of goods later on, as some goods are still taking their time on our Railway. Perhaps they are enjoying the lovely scenery, peeping through the tiny holes of the packing cases, but I wish they had been on our stall, they would have seen hundreds of happy people in the garden I love.

I do hope I have not left out my thanks to anyone.
Well, here are many happy purrs to you all.
Your very grateful and loving PANSY.
Mow, Mow.
P.S.—Many thanks to the sender of these words, with that lovely gift: "Hoping a full purr to-morrow will bring many happy purrs from Pansy and delight the kind hearts of her dear little mistress."
Many thanks to our Maggie for selling all the well known Gema and H. E. The Governors best cigars and you still wanted more?
Many thanks to the Little Pansy Sellers.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. D. Mann, Insurance Agent, is in town on one of his visits.

Rev. L. E. Kennedy, of Bell Island, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's yesterday, both forenoon and evening. Both discourses are highly spoken of by the congregation.

"Make hay while the sun shines" is the motto of everyone now. Even to the movers, who have decided to double their last year's rates seem to be failing in line with the above motto.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby Ryan, of St. John's, accompanied by their little son, Gordon, arrived by train on Saturday on a visit to friends. Mr. Ryan has just sold his saw mill and houses at St. John's and will be leaving with his family for St. George's in a few days, where he has purchased a large mill. We wish our enterprising fellow-townsmen a very large measure of success. He deserves it.

The schr. Minnie Maud arrived from the north on Saturday with a cargo of lumber to her owner, Mr. E. Simmons.

Mrs. R. D. McRae and Sons schr. Hilda R. arrived from Sydney on Friday with another cargo of coal to that firm.

St. Catherine's Girls Guild will hold a garden party in St. Paul's Rectory grounds on Wednesday next, from 3 to 5 p.m. Half of the proceeds go to the W.P.A.

A very pleasing and attractive wedding took place at the S. A. Hall, Lewisporte, on the 27th July when Frederick G. Hackett, Esq., of Pilley's Island, and Miss Mabel V. S. Martin, daughter of Mr. Francis Martin of this town, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The bride was attired in blue silk and bridal veil with orange blossoms. Mr. James, pursuer of the S. S. Home, acted as best man, and Miss Julia Hackett, sister of the groom, acted as chief bride's girl, also Miss Waterman and Mr. Northcott, a returned soldier, and a large number of friends. The ceremony was performed by Capt. Parsons, of Lewisporte. After the ceremony the party proceeded to the hotel where a wedding supper was prepared and many valuable presents were presented to the bride and groom. Mr. Manuel, proprietor of the hotel, Captain Parsons, and pursuer of the S. S. Home and S. E. Clyde, and proprietors of the F. P. U. store presented a beautiful lamp, very costly. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful organ. On the 30th the bride and groom arrived at their home where a welcome reception was given them also a tea served. The bride previous to her wedding was an S. A. officer for six years. After residing a year both Mr. and Mrs. Hackett will return to the field as officers. Wishing them both a long and happy wedded life.

Tacoma Mariner, Descendant of Edward I., Dies.

Death Comes to Capt. Alfred Brotherton—Widely Known Mariner and Pilot Descendant of Plantagenets.

Last, with the exception of one, of the descendants of King Edward I. of England, "the house of Plantagenet," Captain Alfred Brotherton, widely known Pacific coast mariner and pilot, died at his home, 701 South J street, Tuesday evening, of heart failure. He was 67 years of age. While Captain Brotherton had been in poor health for several months, he was thought to be on the road to recovery, and his death was entirely unexpected to family and friends. In his life, say his friends, he had lived to the motto of the Plantagenets, "Assiduita Vincimus" ("We Conquer by Perseverance.")

Captain Brotherton was born in Liverpool July 25, 1850, and had been a resident of Tacoma for eight years, coming here from Port Townsend, where for a number of years he was engaged as a pilot and in the stevedoring business. The advent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway was the direct cause of Captain Brotherton coming to Tacoma, as he interested himself in inducing the Oaaka Shoshen Kaisha line to operate its steamers out of Tacoma in connection with the railway company. It is said by shipping men that it was through the hard work and perseverance of Captain Brotherton that this line was brought to Tacoma. During the time the line has been here Captain Brotherton had been pilot for the company and contracting stevedore, the latter taking up his time entirely the past few years.

Widely Known on Coast.

The death of Captain Brotherton marks the passing of a mariner known all over the Pacific coast. He was a certified master mariner and during his life had commanded vessels sailing nearly all the seas. Captain Brotherton and his brother, Gildart, are declared to be the last direct descendants of King Edward I. of England. The family traces its ancestry back in English history to the famous Plantagenet, it is stated.

Captain Brotherton is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Thomas G. Hammond, of Seattle, and Mrs. Robert Watkins of Port Townsend, and by a brother, Gildart Brotherton, of Rhosygadfa, England.

The body was taken to the Buckley-King company's. The funeral services will be private and held Thursday morning at 11 from the residence. Rev. Clarence W. Weyer will officiate. It is requested by the family that no flowers be sent. The remains will be cremated.

Old Time Cricket.

To help along the fund of the Sailors' and Soldiers' Convalescent Home a cricket match will be played at St. George's Field to-morrow afternoon. Mr. John Donnelly, the famous bowler, will act as umpire and will call play up at 1.30 sharp. Lovers of the grand old game should make an effort to be present to-morrow afternoon and see their one-time favourite batsmen come back. The object is most deserving. The players will be:—

Shamrocks.
R. F. Goodridge, P. J. Berrigan, W. H. Peters, P. Wallace, R. B. Job, J. S. Keating, E. Taylor, C. Ellis, A. Donnelly, E. Berrigan, W. Mews, K. Trenchard, E. R. Watson, C. Ryan, G. Peters, E. Furlong, A. Reid, J. Foley, A. Osmond, N. J. Vinicombe.

Boy Met With Accident

A lad named McGillivray, who was spending his vacation at Major's Path, was severely hurt in a field there a few days ago. In some unaccountable way his leg came in contact with an instrument used for cutting hay and a deep cut was inflicted. He had to be conveyed to the General Hospital to have the injured member attended to.
