NO CUTTING OF PRICES

Agree to Stick to One Figure. Toronto, March 2.-The rubber travelers started out today from the 435 Hamilton road. Bourne wholesaler centers, each man duly sworn to maintain prices set for the DR. JOHN D. WILSON-OFFICE AND season. So anxious are the wholesalers to avoid cutting each other's prices that the travelers, before they start out, are required to make statutory declaration that they will not make any reduction in prices, bevond the usual discount for early orders. No traveler is permitted to forfeit any part of his commission and the "treating" and entertainment of customers is strictly contrary to regulations. Many of the travelers sent out on rubber trips are specially employed for this work. It will be some satisfaction to the wearer to know that rubbers will be a little cheaper next fall and winter. The prices quoted by the travelers sent out today are lower than those of last year. A representative of one of the local manufacturing companies to the "easing off" in the price of crude rubber.
