KAIL WATER TANK

Lack of Rain Causes River Grand Level To Drop Considerably.

PLOWING IS STOPPED

Special to The Advertiser.

St. Thomas, Nov. 12.-The lack of rain is becoming a serious matter in this district, and generally speaking throughout Western Ontario. Farmers on heavy soils estimate that 12 hours steady rain will be necessary before the plow will turn the oil properly. Railroads are also suffering from the apparent indifference of old Jupiter Pluvius. The water tank at Simcoe on the C. N. R. and Wabash is out of commission, and the water level of the Grand river is said to be below the intake pipe.

The military committee in charge of the program for the opening of the Memorial hospital next Wednesday have partly outlined their plans for MUTT AND CFF the event. It was decided to hold a parade of all ex-service men and women from the Horton market, all ranks to assemble at 1:20. Uniforms and decorations are called for. The regiment band and an armed party will participate. Widows, children and parents of soldier dead are to be accommodated in special cars. Ex-service men from a distance are urged to remain in the city for a smoker in the armories during the evening. Committees in charge: General, Col. Picking, chairman; G. Whitworth, secretary; Messrs. Watling, Gerrard, Stokes, Andrews, Chamberlain, Orrell, Neville, Lioyd, Foster, King and Rendle, Publicity, Messrs. Picking, Gerrard, Watling and Whitworth. Transportation, Messrs, Andrews and Lloyd. Enteromen from the Horton market, all Messrs, Andrews and Lloyd, tainment. Messrs. Cham Stokes, Gerrard and Neville. Chamberlain,

Headed by Mayor Sloggett and J. W. Stewart, the Christmas community fund committee held its first meeting in the chamber of commerce rooms of the Grand Central hotel Tuesday evening. Delegates from different organizations were present and tentative plans discussed. Six Alma daughters from different parts of Western Ontario will form a guard of honor at the funeral of the the remains to the last resting place in the St. Thomas cemetery. The main body of the Central church will be reserved for mourners, students of Alma college, Alma daughters, representative ministers and the board of education.

Thomas Barr, a former well-known boat keeper of the city, passed away in London this afternoon at an advanced age. The body will be brought to this city for interment. Chief Armstrong has issued an ultimatum to motorists who are driving under the impression that the new pavement on Gladstone and Metcalfe streets have been laid for the express purposes of speeding.

Arthur R. Williams, a member of the firm of P. R. Williams & Sons, has received word of his appointment as chairman of the grievance and membership committee of the Ontario Funeral Service Association.
