AVERAGE LIFE IN THE U. S. NOW 57 YEARS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 30.— The average life of a human being in the United States is now estimated at 57 years, according to William H. Cameron, managing director of the National Safety Council, in session here.
Slightly more than a decade ago it was 52 years. It has taken our civilization only 12 years to prolong the lifetime of an American citizen five years and add probably 500,000,000 years to the human life of the nation.
The safety movement alone is credited with more than 100,000 lives actually saved since 1912.

of the immigrants in Australia were of the Church of England.
The plan for the future, he said, was to appoint committees of the most influential men in the various states, these committees "nominating" immigrants en bloc.

"The whole process is carried out through the church," he stated, "and they were never lost to the church. As a result of the safety movement, there been offered, training schools for their boys."

He stressed the necessity of the voice of clergymen in the work, stating that the parishioners would become immigrants on the advice of clergy when they would be inclined to be suspicious of the advice of others. He declared that an organization such as the Church Army in Canada would be a great step in obtaining the most desirable class of immigrants, as far as possible and making an investigation into their past history. The resolution was rejected with little discussion.

CAREFUL SELECTION.
Principal Vance, Vancouver, moved a resolution on the question of immigration, urging the Government to realize the need for careful selection of immigrants in the Old Country and for the mental and physical examination of the immigrants as well as for a possible making an investigation into their past history. The resolution was rejected
with little discussion.

NARCOTIC DRUGS.
The board brought in a resolution of three sections relating to narcotic drugs, which was approved. The resolution instructed the Council for Social Service.

"1. To urge upon the Government of Canada the need of pressing through the League of Nations and in every way possible the prohibition of international agreement of the growth and manufacture of more narcotic drugs than are required for the world's legiti-mate medical needs."

"2. To point out to the various proving adequate institutional care and thoroughly scientific treatment for those who unfortunately are drug addicts."

"3. To point out to parents, teachers and clergy the need of educating and warning young people and others, especially where the traffic is known to exist, respecting the insidious nature and extreme dangers of drug addiction."

GET AT SOURCE.
"There is no good trying to deal with smuggling. We have to get at the source," stated the Bishop of Honan, in speaking on the resolution on the production of opium. He declared that he spoke with 30 years' experience in anti-opium work in China. He declared there were 25,000,000 pounds of opium grown in China last year and only 3,000,000 were grown in the remainder of the world. He endorsed the drastic action against peddlers of narcotic drugs.

Magistrate Jones, Toronto, claimed the greatest obstacle in Canada to the reduction of the production of opium was the British Government, which, he said, regarded opium as food and he said had no legal training and were reluctant to give severe punishment in such cases.

EXAMINE IMMIGRANTS.
A resolution calling for mental and physical examination of child immigrants and for a past history of these immigrants; a Government policy of placing the children out of the hands of all church people to their social and spiritual needs, brought a number of expressions of satisfaction over the results of child immigration in the past.
The Bishop of Ontario deplored the publicly given cases which had resulted unfortunately, declaring that the child immigration had been most satisfactory to all concerned.

LOOK FOR BODIES
NEAR KINCARDINE

Search For Remains of Clifton's Crew Centers There.

Special to The Free Press.
GODERICH, Sept. 30.—Richard A.
Harrison, of the Lake Carriers' Association, of Cleveland, who has taken charge of the search for the bodies of the freighter Clifton, which was lost on September 22, so far has met with little success.

From what details he has learned from the four boats that have picked up wreckage the boat was about west of Southampton and in the center of the lake. Mr. Harrison believes that if any of the bodies are found it will be above Kincardine, as the winds of the past few days have been from this direction. At least four bodies should be found, those of the captain, mate, wheelman and watchman. The last three mentioned were with the captain at the time of the mishap.

Old wrecking tugs and a seaplane both passed up this shore and there held search, but reported no signs of wreckage. This is probably due to the fact that they were too close to shore.

WANT GOVERNMENT BOATS FOR WINTER

Owen Sound Will Point To Advantages of Harbor.

WILL WRITE TO OTTAWA

Credentials of All Peddlers Will Be Investigated.

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 30.—City Clerk Gordon, of Owen Sound, has been instructed by the Council to write the Dominion Government requesting that some of the Canadian Government boats, which have been cruising the lakes during the past season, be tied up in Owen Sound harbor for the winter.
The advantages of Owen Sound's harbor as a wintering port will be pointed out including the fact that it can be navigated in any kind of weather and has two large Government docks.

MUST BE BONA FIDE.
All peddlers and hawkers who hereafter come to Owen Sound must have their credentials looked into by the newly appointed peddlers censor, James Pearson. There have been a large number of fake peddlers about the city recently, and many have claimed to be returned soldiers. The new official himself is a returned soldier, and appointed by the Canadian Legion at the request of the Council, will examine them all.

Owen Sound Collegiate Institute annual field day is set for Friday next.
October 3. Boys' events will be held in three classes, senior, intermediate and junior, as has been the case heretofore.

RECORD POTATOES.
A. E. Dunn, an Owen Sound grower, claims a record for potato growing.
This spring he got three seed potatoes from Saskatchewan which weighed less than six and three quarter pounds.
From the hills planted with these three, he dug up this fall 75 pounds of potatoes and three of them weighed five and a half pounds.

At a meeting in Woodford Baptist Church, Sutherland, Tuesday, Sept. 24, prohibitionists organized for the liquor plebiscite, Rev. A. J. Orr, of Annan, was appointed president, and Rev. W. H.
Summers, secretary-treasurer. Representatives were appointed for every community and polling subdivisions.

JUDGE DISMISSES ORIGINAL JURY

Incident At Murder Trial of Fred McGaughey

TESTIMONY AT LINDSAY

Witness Tells of Victim's Story of the Shooting

LINDSAY, Ont., Sept. 30.—Miss Helen Stewart, of Toronto, was the feature witness at the trial of Fred McGaughey for the murder of his sweetheart, Beatrice Pearce, on May 25 last, when the hearing was resumed this afternoon following the empanelling of a new jury after the jury which sat during the morning was dismissed owing to two of the jurors having wandered unattended in the corridors during the noon recess. Exactly the same jurors were re-empanelled and the evidence was repeated.

Miss Stewart repeated to the court the words of Miss Fee as she lay in bed last May wounded by bullets fired by McGaughey, to whom she was engaged.
"I'm going to die," Miss Stewart declared her friend said. "I'm going to tell you what happened. I know I won't live long enough to tell it to anyone else. God won't let me live to suffer any longer. If I had been a girl I would never have been shot."

"Fred came into the room at this point," the witness said, and asked "What have I done for you, Beatrice?" She pulled back the bandages and showed him the wounds, when he cried:
"Oh my God," and ran out of the room.
VICTIM PRAYED.

"Beatrice began to pray and asked me to pray too," Miss Stewart continued. "Then she told me Fred had taken her to his home and had been drinking nearly all the way and tried to force the whiskey down my throat."

The injured girl said "He stopped the car by the roadside and tried to assault me. Then he took me to his home and went with me to his room and he tried to force me to have sex with him. He was very violent and
