Now would be a good time to set your Farmers' Club, Literary and Debating Society, or whatever you choose to call it, in motion for the coming winter. Every community should have some centre at which the young people might assemble to cultivate their musical and literary qualities. Many a man and woman who have attained rank have commenced in just such an humble way.

Who will set the ball rolling in your locality? Let there be a good rallying of forces at an early date.

The Guide-Advocate has a number of small accounts on its books for small advertisements and Card of Thanks notices, many of them ordered by phone or mail and not prepaid. Will the persons concerned please settle for these without notice? It coets more to be without notice? It costs money to be continually mailing these accounts, and is discouraging to receive no response. Although small individually they mean auch to us in the aggregate. Get these mall indebtednesses squared off. Re-member that the little things are as ch worry as the big things, and are t as apt to make or mar your repu-on for honesty.

A FARM PAPER whose editor is an active farmer must of necessity be near the farmer and know his needs. This is one of the reasons for the popularity of The Weekly Sun, Toronto, which for over twenty-two years the Ontario farmer has considered his business paper. Then, again, The Sun's market reports are of such value to those who reports are of such value to those who take advantage of the information given that they will not do without it. Sun subscribers are active farmers, who farm for profit. If you are not a subscriber to the Sun you should be. The Sun can help you make the farm pay all it can pay.
