LADIES FAREWELL TO MRS. ATCHESON

On Monday evening, September 21st, the ladies of Erie street United church met at the home of Mrs. Atcheson to say goodbye to her, prior to her departure for London.

A social hour was spent in toasts, speeches and readings after which Mrs. Thompson read an address of appreciation to Mrs. Atcheson and Mrs. R. H. Stapleford presented her with a handsome purse.

The address follows:

Dear Mrs. Atcheson:

"We, your friends, have met here tonight to tell you of our sincere appreciation of the work you have done since living among us and to wish you continued prosperity in the new home to which you are going.

"We feel that we are not only in the act of bidding you goodnight, but each of us, individually, will feel a distinct regret at your removal. You have always been several to hold out a strong, helpful, devoted heart is full of such things then read by it has emanated love to the meeting you have come into a social half. Please accept this as the best

INDIANS IN CONVENTION

A convention of Indians is being held in Brantford on the Six Nations Reserve, apparently without any arrangement having been made with the Indian department. Delegates from the United States and as well as the Dominion are present.

The annual meeting of the East Lambton U. F. O. will be held in Al-winston on October 24.
