THE SALMAGUNDI. or News of the Day.

THIS DAY is published, a circument Number of a new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January 1826. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principle object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted tox the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who esites it,—(those out of the city will invardather orders, possage paid)—If and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be weating to make each succeeding number superior in neary respect to this preceding ones.

The SALMAGUNDI, will be printed on large imperial paper, equel in size and quartiy to that which is at Present used for the Gentlemen's Vale Office and forwarded to Mr. Foster
