

CABINS IN THE CLOUDS

To climb 6,875 feet above Lake Louise and to enjoy a cup of tea in the delightful surroundings is one of the attractions offered visitors to Lake Louise, Alta. Tea houses on mountain peaks were unheard of a few years ago, but to-day there are at least a dozen of them situated in the Canadian Rockies.

Two of the most picturesque are the "Beehive" on the shores of Lake Agnes, about two miles and a half from the Chateau and the other a rustic log cabin on the top of Mount Fairview. Walking and pony excursions over the mountains in the vicinity of this picturesque lake are among the popular pastimes of visitors from all parts of the globe to "the lakes in the clouds."

From the "Beehive" one can get a perfect view of Mirror Lake and Lake Louise, which, with Lake Agnes, are known as "the lakes in the clouds." This cozy little tea room is owned by Miss B. Dadds and operated during the season by Miss Goudaro. Its furnishings are quaint and rustic.

The foodstuffs are delivered every morning by pack pony from the Chateau Lake Louise—even fuel for the cook stoves is transported in this way.

In addition to the tea room there is an attractive assortment of antiques from various parts of the globe, collected during the winter months by Miss Dadds, who usually goes abroad.

There are many surprises of scenic beauty along the trail to the tea room, but perhaps the most interesting fact is that one can obtain a delicious cup of English tea, with equally delicious home cooking with in sight and sound of whistling martlets and squirrels and chipmunks that leap from bough to bough, and often within sight of friendly bears who come close to the kitchen door in search of tasty food.

One of the most interesting trips at Lake Louise is by a narrow, winding path on Mount Fairview to Saddleback Tea Room and Rest House, which is 2,500 feet higher than the Chateau. This quaint little log cabin, situated on Mount Fairview, overlooks Saddleback Mountain, so called because of its rock formation being similar to a saddle. It takes almost two hours by pony to make the trip over a steep zigzag trail, from which can be seen winding streams and rushing brooks thousands of feet below.

This tea room and rest house, like "Beehive," is owned by Miss Dadds and operated by Miss A. E. Whyman. Its surroundings are most artistic and restful. The view of Paradise Valley and Mount Temple from the tea house is one of the finest in the Rockies.

Daily supplies of food and fuel are transported by pack ponies from the Chateau to serve approximately 25 guests a day, who are well rewarded for their journey to the "highest tea house in Canada."

The best tea in the world can be spoiled in the making, so do not take any chance when brewing a pot of MORSES. First you must be sure that you have fresh water, and then you must be equally sure to pour it in the teapot just as it comes to the boil. Some people think that when water is steaming it is boiling—water is not boiling until it bubbles.

Ticket No. 32 was the lucky number which brought the handsome cabinet of silver given by Lockett & Co. in connection with their holiday business. The holder was Mr. Albert Wade.

Saturday's snow fall was much the largest of the present Winter and over a foot lies on the level. The roads are now well broken out and going is good. It is a pity, however, that the snow had not been preceded by a week's fairly hard frost as swamps in the woods are still open interfering with working operations there.

The Wentworth Valley. The Royal Bank shows a reproduction from the famous painting of the First Canadian Contingent landing at St. Nazaire 1915. A. W. Allen & Co's have a fine calendar, the naval combat between the Chesapeake and the Shannon. ### EUROPEAN NATIONS PAYING THEIR DEBTS TO CANADA

London.—Interest to the amount of $325,000 on the Canadian loan to Greece for the second portion of this year is now on the way from Athens to London. This will bring the total interest payment from Greece to Canada for the year up to $450,000, the amount agreed upon between Athens and Ottawa some time ago when the post-war debt of Greece to the Dominion was consolidated. The debt approximately amounts to $5,000,000. It is expected by the end of next March Belgium will have wiped out her debt to Canada by the payment of $3,000,000, and that by the end of 1924 France will also have completed payment of her debt to Canada—$5,500,000.
