NOTE.

There are 116 girls and 111 boys at the Institution, with a few more to come. General good health prevails. The new pupils are all happy and contented.

R. MATHISON, SECRETARY.

Convention Photos.

Convention group, large size, 11x22, price $1. The following will be sold at $1.25 for the set of five photos, or 30c each. Convention group, 5x7, taken on Saturday evening, Tug of War, ladies married vs single tug of War, men, city vs country, Blindfold Bicycle Race, Slow Bicycle Race. All are good photos and will be sent to any address on receipt of price. Address, Wm. NUNAK, Institution for the Deaf, Belleville, or to Mr. C. S. COCHRANE, Photographer, Hamilton, Ont.

The Toronto Star says: The Ontario Government is being urged to extend the scope of asylums of the Deaf and Dumb at Belleville and the Blind at Brantford. At present there is not accommodation for half of those applying. The suggestion is that the buildings be largely extended; that the schools be free and that attendance be compulsory. Hello, is this the feed store? Will you send me at once a bale of hay, two quarts of bran and a bushel of oats. Who is it there? Ah, don't get gay, it's there the horse.

The Showers' Homestead.

This homestead is about two miles from the post village and about ten miles from Oil Springs. Before coming here, I had the opportunity of going to Petrolia, where I spent five days with Miss Ida Babeock. It will be interesting to your readers to learn that the enterprising oil metropolis possesses an excellent system of water-works, by which means the town is supplied for all purposes through the pipes underground from Lake Huron, eleven miles away.

Mrs. George Running, of this town, a sister of Miss Babeock, is first cousin of Roy Jackson's father who lives five miles further from Oil Springs.

The visiting nutes during the past summer were Angus A. McIntosh, of Toronto; John Fleming and his wife, of Mossido; Duncan Bloom, of Thamesville; Roderick McKenzie, of Newbury; Albert Wright, of Mossido; and Maggie Esson, of Oil Springs, accompanied by her father.

As David Turrill and Kenneth McKenzie were our nearest neighbors, they were most frequent visitors, thus making the company quite pleasant and lively.

On the 5th of August, Roderick McKenzie left for Kincardine to see his parents, and then went to Red Jacket, Michigan, where his brother John D. is working.

On the 9th of the same month most of the nutes already mentioned, besides Christina and Annie Showers, were in Florence for the Civic-holiday. Mr. Turrill won the second prize in the bicycle race Duncan Bloom and Kenneth McKenzie arrived too late for the race.

On the 21st of the same month, I was so surprised and deeply gratified at the unexpected and thoughtful visit of my old classmate, Mr. McIntosh, who came on his wheel several miles for the purpose. Needless to say
