

10.—We will not close this report without emphatic reference to the resuscitated agitation in favor of the speedy establishment of a "Home for Inebriates." We rejoice that the question is again before our public, and we recommend this Grand Division to give the proposal its most cordial and effective support.

11.—We conclude by calling the attention of the Grand Division to the important duty of earnest and united effort to secure an additional enactment to the laws now in force, to compel any vendor of intoxicating liquors which may be the cause of loss of life or limb or the injury to any person, to be directly responsible in damages therefor.

All of which is respectfully submitted in L. P. and F.;

Representatives R. S. Blois and Norman J. Layton appealed from the decision of the Grand Worthy Patriarch, "on the subject of the Worthy Patriarch of a Subordinate Division voting when a ballot or secret vote is taken." The question was put and the Chair was not sustained.

The G. W. P. gave notice of appeal to the National Division.

The Grand Division appointed P. G. W. P. Brown and P. G. W. A. Murray to examine and approve the appeal papers and the statement of Grand Division.

The thanks of the Grand Division were duly passed and tendered the brethren and sisters of Kellogg Division for the use of the Hall for this Session—which, by the way, had been beautifully decorated by the sisters for the occasion—and to the people of Elmsdale for their hospitable reception and entertainment of the representatives.

A. Dunbar, D. G. W. P., of Kellogg Division, responded in a very neat speech, to the vote of thanks.

On motion of G. S., seconded by G. Cond. it was—

Resolved, that the sum of one hundred dollars be placed at the disposal of the Executive Committee of this Grand Division to be used by them if considered advisable, in whole or in part, to aid in furnishing rooms in the Inebriate Asylum about to be established in Nova Scotia.
