

Fitz-James was brave.—Though to his heart,
The life-blood thrilled with sudden start
He manned himself with dauntless air
Returned the chief his haughty stare ;

(a) Divide this passage into propositions and state their relation to each other.

(b) Give a minute analysis of the first five lines.

(c) Parse underlined words in tabular form.

2. Give the plural of lily, gas, attorney, stratum, Mussulman, crisis ; the feminine of beau, earl, lad, stag, ram, Jesse, duke, marquis ; and the comparative and superlative degrees of many, merry, coy, eternal, holy.

3. Give the past tense, past participle, and present participle of these verbs in tabular form :—sit, set, lie down, lay, shoe, singe, die, omit, pay, differ.

4. Use correctly in sentences: bye, buy, sew, sow, subject, subject ; produce, produce ; conflict, conflict.

5. Write a sentence not exceeding six words illustrating :—

(a) The nominative absolute.

(b) The direct and indirect object.

(c) The Complementary (or Predication) nominative.

(d) A noun subordinate clause.

(e) An adverbial subordinate clause of reason.

6. Correct the following sentences :

Between you and I neither James or Tomas were at saint palls church last sabath morning.

The childrens, misses and ladies shoes were bought at Mr. Smith & Jones.

Which is the farthest north toronto or montreal, the latterisnt it.

Who will be invite to our party on the queens berth-day ! Let you and I think it over.

English Literature.—One hour.

1. Show by the aid of a map the exact position of each of these places and tell what important event occurred there :—Inch-Coilliack, St. Brides, Duncraggen, Laurick Mead, Stirling, Benvenue, Ellen's Isle, Coilantogle Ford, Coir-nau-Wriskin, Pass of the Trosachs.

2. Write down five consecutive lines describing (a) Ellen (b) Lock Katrine ; and reproduce in your own words the description of Malcolm Graeme.

3. Give in the briefest possible manner a synopsis of Canto V.

4. Write notes on (a) Fiery Cross ; (b) Clan-Alpine ; (c) the Highland dress and arms ; (d) James Fitz-James ; the triple anathema.

5. Complete the following lines, and tell of whom, or of what, each is said :—

(a) Each purple peak—

(b) A foot more light—