

NEW BOOKS FOR S. S. LIBRARIES.

OUR OWN PUBLICATIONS.

The Prince of India; or, Why Constantinople Fell. By General Lew Wallace, author of "Ben Hur," "The Fair God," etc. 2 vols. . . . $2 50

"Unquestionably this is a greater book than 'Ben Hur'—greater in its historical accuracy, in its attention to details, in its absence of anachronisms; greater, also, in its main conception, faithfully brought out through plot and incident, as the events sweep on in ordered sequence to their tragic close. . . . One chapter in the book, entitled 'Racing with a Storm,' is even a better piece of descriptive than 'The Chariot Race' in 'Ben Hur,' and will, without doubt, become a favorite piece with our leading eloquentists."—Toronto Star.

Stories from Indian Wigwams and Northern Campfires. By Rev. E. R. Young, author of "By Canoe and Dog Train," etc. Fully illustrated. . . . 1 25

"Written in an entrancing style, full of information, varied with humor, pathos and profound reflection, the book is one which we can cordially recommend."—Evangelical Churchman.

The Dread Voyage. Poems. By William Wilfred Campbell, author of "Lake Lyrics" . . . . . 1 00

"It is not too much to say that no Canadian poet has shown more originality and power than are evinced in this volume."—Christian Guardian.

Afloat for Eternity; or, a Pilgrim's Progress for the Times. By Rev. J. A. Kennedy, B.A. (Norwich, Ont.) . . . . 0 60

"The striking title of a thoughtful and instructive book. The characters introduced, the topics they are made to discuss, with the arguments they employ, are altogether modern. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter have written an introduction, and commend it as 'a clever book, splendidly written.'"—Globe.

Twenty Minutes Late. By Mrs. G. R. Alden ("Pansy") . . . . . 0 70

"Fascinating in style, and earnestly religious in spirit."—Montreal Witness.

Stephen Mitchell's Journey. By Mrs. G. R. Alden ("Pansy") . . . . . $0 70

"The volume is highly entertaining throughout, and gives a view of real life as found in its variety of forms, which cannot fail to deeply impress the reader."—Free Press.

Campaign Echoes: the Autobiography of Mrs. Letitia Youmans; with introduction by Miss Frances E. Willard. With portraits . . . . . 1 00

"While there is no attempt at a high literary tone, the energetic personality of the writer bursts out into eloquence as she relates incident after incident of her long life-labor, and waxes hot over the evils she has seen and known."—N. Y. Christian Advocate.

A Merchant Prince: Life of Hon. Senator John Macdonald. By Rev. Hugh Johnston, D.D. With portraits and illustrations . . . 1 00

"Dr. Johnston has embellished the record with inspiring sentiments, and made a book which in itself is almost sufficient to qualify any young man for a successful business career, by placing before him not only an inspiring example, but business and moral principles of the highest value."—Baltimore Methodist.

Songs of the Common Day, and Ave: An Ode for the Shelley Centenary. By Prof. Chas. G. D. Roberts, author of "In Divers Tones," etc. . . . . 1 25

"Mr. Roberts gets his inspiration direct from Nature: his poems exhibit naturally and unconstrainedly, and yet with the exquisite grace of the scholar, the moods in which he comes in contact with the common life of the land."—The Week.

A Bitter Debt. A Tale of the Black Country. By Annie S. Swan. Cloth, handsomely illustrated . . . . . 1 25

A new book by Annie S. Swan is the event of a year. Our charming authoress needs no introduction to the Canadian public. Nor is ours a bitter debt to her, but a very sweet obligation for the delightful pages she places before us.

NEW ISSUES OF THE RELIGIOUS TRACT SOCIETY.

From the ever busy press of this great Publishing House have just come the following new books, additional to those published in the November number of the BANNER:

The Log of a Sky-Pilot; or, Work and Adventure around the Goodwin Sands. By Thomas Stanley Treanor, M.A., author of "Heroes of the Goodwin Sands." With many illustrations . . . . . $1 25

In this book Mr. Treanor gives many thrilling and inspiring incidents connected with his hard and venturesome work of carrying the Gospel message to the seamen of all nations, whose vessels pass through the Downs.

Of No Account. By Ruth Lamb, author of "Holiday Stories," etc. Illustrated . . . . 1 25

Forty-two Years Amongst the Indians and Eskimo. Pictures from the Life of the Right Rev. John Horden, First Bishop of Moosonee, By Beatrice Battly. With a Map and many illustrations. Crown 8vo. . . . . 0 90

Bishop Horden was a great pioneer missionary. This book tells the story of his hard and adventurous life mainly in his own words. It abounds with incidents of Indian life and travel.

Braveall Round. By the author of "Home, Sweet Home," "Harold's New Creed," etc. Illustrated . . . . . 0 70

Vittoria. A Battle Cry. By Miss E. L. De Butts, author of "Retrieving the Colors," etc. Illustrated . . . . . $0 70

A capital story of soldier life.

The King's Sword. A Story for all who love Boys. By Helen H. Watson. Illustrated . . . . . 0 70

Brave Bessie Westland. By Emma Leslie, author of "Audrey's Jewels," etc. Illustrated . . . . 0 50

Lord Stafford Audley; or, Some Children of the King. By Heather Grey. Illustrated . . . . . 0 50

Storm-Tossed. By Mrs. M. F. Wilson, author of "Miss Elsie," etc. Illustrated. . . . 0 35

The Great Show; or, Bunny's Birthday. By Evelyn Everett Green, author of "The Little Midshipman," etc. Coloured frontispiece . . . . . 0 25

Jim. By Mary E. Ropes, author of "The Vengeance of Victor Verdun," etc. Little Dot Series. With Coloured frontispiece. . . 0 20

WRITE FOR CATALOGUE AND TERMS.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Wesley Buildings, Toronto.

MONTREAL: C. W. COATES.

HALIFAX: S. F. HUESTIS.