SIXTH DIET.

St. Andrew's Church. Pictou. July 5, 1864.

The Synod met, after devotional exercises, and was constituted. Rev. Daniel McCurdy, Moderator.

Mr. McKay, Vice-Convener, in the absence of Mr. Pollok, Convener, read his Report on Dalhousie College, as follows :---

"In presenting a report of their proceedings since last meeting of Synod, the Dalhcusie College Committee do not decm it necessary to enter into a detailed narrative of events or circumstances, which are matters of notoriety to all members of this Court. Professor McDonald has arrived in this country, having accepted our appointment as Professor of Mathematics, and Dalhousie College has been in full operation during the past winter. The Committee have every reason to think that the Church may congratulate itself on having secured so accomplished a scholar and efficient a Professor as Mr Mc-Donald, and it is hoped that his high qualifications, and the success of all negotiation and arrangements hitherto, may be an additional mo-tive to our people to fulfil, in an honorable man-ner, our engagements with him. The Committee are of opinion that one of the most efficient supports which the Church can render the institution, is the adoption of some measure by which students may be induced to attend in as large numbers as possible.
