GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA.

Tuesday, 10th May, 1870.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS it is among other thing, in effect, Cap. 6, intituled "An Act respecting the Customs," that the importer of wheat, maize, or other grain, may grind and pack the same in bond, provided such grinding and packing be done and conducted under such regulations and restrictions as the Governor in Council may from time to time make for this purpose; and that the same regulations may extend to the substitution of flour and meal in quantities equivalent to the produce of such wheat, maize or other grain.

His Excellency the Governor General In Council, on the recommendation of the Houorable the Minister of Customs, and under the authority aforesaid, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the grinding and packing of wheat, maize and other grain, in bond, shall be done and conducted under the regulations and restrictions following, viz:-

1st. The Collector of Customs at any port of entry, shall receive entries of foreign wheat, maize or other grain, to be ground and packed in bond, for exportation or consumption, and such Collectorshall deliver or caused to be delivered such wheat, maize or other grain to be forwarded on to the port of destination, where may be situated the mill or mills at which the said wheat, maize or other grain is to be ground and packed in bond, as by law permitted.

2nd. The wheat, maize, or other grain shall be so forwarded under bonds to be taken either by the Collector at the port of entry, or by the Collector at the port of destination, as may best suit the convenience of the importer, which bonds shall be taken for an amount that will cover the duties chargeable upon the said wheat, maize, or other grain, and be conditioned for the due payment of such duties, should such wheat, malze or other grain, or the quantity of flour and meal representing such wheat, maize or other grain, or the equivalent thereof in flour and meal, and on proof of the payment of such duties or the due exportation as aforesald within one year from the date of the said bond or bonds, the said bonds shall be dully cancelled; and if such bonds shall be given at the Port of destination, a certificate of such rayment or exportation under the hands of the Collector of Customs of such Port, shall be forwarded to the Collector of such Port of Entry at which such wheat, maize, or other grain shall have been imported, or entered for manufacture in bond.

LAURIE'S MAP OF THE North-West Territories!

This map supplies a desideratum long felt, and

- I.—The whole of the Fertile Belt, and those parts of Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Dacota through which the waggon roads pass to Fort Garry.
- 11 -The actual survey of the Selkirk Settlement with all the roads, churches, etc., includ-ing the New Government Road from Fort William to Fort Garry.
- III.—The Canoo Route from Fort William to Fort Garry.
- -A Sectional Map giving all the Railway or Steambout Routes by which St. Cloud can be reached—(St. Cloud is the present terminus of railway travel).
- V .- Table of distances on the Overland Route.

Emigrants can see at a glance where every good campling Ground or Station (Hotel) on the road is situated, and calculate the rate of travel

Newspaper readers will find it an invaluable aid to a proper understanding of the news from that interesting region.

The map has been compiled by D. CODD, Esq. of Ottawa, from official imps and reports never yet made public; and in this work he has been assisted greatly by a practical knowledge of the country laid down.

The Map is 21 by 45 inches, beautifully lithographed, and will be furnished at the following prices:—

The pocket size mailed, free of postage, on re-celpt of price.

Five mounted maps, to one address, sent by express prepaid.

Address orders to

P. G. LAURIE, Windsor. Windsor, April 6, 1870.

Public attention

Is hereby directed to the following Sections of the Act of the Province of Ontario, respecting the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marringes:-

- 11. The occupier of the house and tenement in which a death shall take place, or, if the occupler be the person who shall have died, then some one of the persons residing in the house in which the death took place, or, if such death shall not have taken place within a house, then any person present at the death, or having any knowledge of the circumstances attending the same, or the coroner who may have attended any inquest held on such person, shall, before the interment of the body, or within ten days after, supply to the Division Registrar of the Division in which such death took place, according to his or her knowledge or belief, all the particulars required to be registered touching such death by the form provided by this Act.
- 22. If any householder, head of a family, clergyman, physician or other person or persons required by this Act to report births, marriages and deaths, refuses or wilfully neglects to do so within the time named, such person shall, for each and every offence, forfelt and pay a sum not less than one dollar, nor more than twenty dollars and costs, in the discretion of the presiding Justice before whom the case shall be heard; and it shall be the duty of the Division Registrar to prosecute all such persons so neglecting or refusing to make the required reports.

THE RED RIVER ROUTE MAP STANDARD PERIODICALS

FOR 1870.

REPUBLISHED BY THE LEONARD SCOT PUBLISHING CO., NEW YORK.

Indispensible to all desirous of being well informed on the great subjects of the day.

1. The Edinburgh Review.

This is the oldest of the series. In its main features it still follows in the path marked out by Brougham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith, and Lord Holland, its original founders and first contributors.

2. THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW.

which commences its 128th volume with the January number, was set on foot as a rival to the EDINBURGH. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its literary department.

3. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW

nas just closed its 92nd volume. In point of literary ability this Review is fast rising to a level with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW.

now in its 51st volume, occupies a very high position in periodical literature. Passing beyond the marrow formalism of schools and parties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathies and a higher integrity of conviction.

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine was commenced 53 years ago. Equalling the Quarterlies in its literary and selentific depart-ments, it has won a wide reputation for the nar-ratives and sketches which enliven its pages.
