Breadstuffs for Export.

There is a larger demand for breadstuffs to go abroad, and as foreign prices have in the last week or so come within reach of our prices of flour, considerable has been shipped. The higher prices of wheat in this country, at the close Wednesday, caused flour men to advance, asking figures that took patents out of the range of exporting. It was by the closest figuring that the flour product of a mill including patents could be shipped before the additional cost of wheat Wednesday. With that making the cost 10c a barrel more, there would be difficulty in making results meet the cost, unless foreigners pay that 10c additional. Even then, it is by the closest shave that it can be done. —Minneapolis Market Record.

"all the wheat from eastern Oregon and Washington is being shipped east by rail, and not a pound is going to Portland. Four or five train loads have gone east daily on the Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific for the past six weeks, and there are not more than 1,000,000 bushels left in the warehouses and about a million more in the hands of the farmers. Shippers say this is partly owing to the excessive charter rates demanded by ship-owners."

Thirty years ago, says a Nebraska Democratic paper, there were two millionaires and no tramps in the United States. To-day there 31,000 millionaires and over two million tramps. What a blessing the republican party's class legislation has been for the country. What a beautiful thing protection has been. If this demonstrates anything, it demonstrates the fact that if the present state of things exist 30 years longer, a few men will own the whole country and the balance of our 65,000,000 million will be paupers.
