

THE BRYANT & STRATTON

Corner of Notre Dame St. & Place d'Armes Square.

Imparts a Thorough Commercial Education, and specially prepares young men and boys for business. As the course is confined to the requisites of business, the progress is rapid, and the results beneficial and practical. There being no vacations.

Students can enter at any time, and pursue the course without interruption. This affords a FAVOURABLE OPPORTUNITY for Teachers and others having leisure during the summer months to secure the advantages of a Commercial Course.

Special arrangements made with Teachers.

The completeness of the course, the long standing and extensive connections of the College, and the superior advantages of a city like Montreal for securing a business education, ought to be specially kept in mind.

The Course of Study embraces

BOOK-KEEPING in all its departments,

COMMERCIAL and MENTAL ARITHMETIC,

PENMANSHIP and CORRESPONDENCE,

PHONOGRAPHY and FRENCH.

Circulars containing full information in reference to terms, &c., will be obtained on application either personally or by mail.

TASKER & DAVIS.