I CURE FITS!

What say cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and then have them return again. I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease of FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS a life-long study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my infallible remedy. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial, and I will care you. Address DR. H. G. ROOT,

A BOOK OF STIRRING ADVENTURE.

Sketches from My Life.

By the late ADMIRAL HOBART PASHA.

WITH A PORTRAIT.

This brilliant and lively volume contains, in addition to numerous adventures of a general character, descriptions of slaver-hunting on the coast of Africa, blockade-running in the South during the civil war, and experiences in the Turkish navy during the war with Russia.

"A memoir which enthralles by its interest and captivates by its ingenuous modesty. . . . A deeply interesting record of a very exceptional career."—Pall Mall Gazette.
"The sketches of South American life are full of interest. The sport, the inevitable entanglements of susceptible middle-class with beautiful Spanish girls and the sometimes disastrous consequences, the duels, attempts at assassination, and other adventures and amusements, are described with much spirit. . . . The story of his slaver-hunting carries one back to boyish recollections of Captain Marryat's delightful tales. . . . The sketches abound in interesting details of the American war. It is impossible to abridge the account of these exciting rushes (blockade-running) through the line of cruisers—our readers must enjoy them for themselves."—The Athenaeum.

MARGUERITE, OR THE ISLE OF DEMONS AND OTHER POEMS.

By GEORGE MARTIN.

Printed in Beautiful Style in Black and Red, and Bound in Handsome Cloth Binding, $2.00.

Mr. Martin is well known in Montreal as a poet of great originality and power. He has taken for his main theme the most romantic and touching story recorded in the annals of Canada, and has treated it in a style to reflect credit upon our literature. The subjects of the smaller poems are such as appeal to all Canadians. They are full of local colour and local allusion. Those who want to send away some specially Canadian Christmas Gift cannot do better than send this volume.

ADVANCE PRESS NOTICES.

NEW YORK MAIL AND EXPRESS. It will be a magazine of the widest sense of the term, and one that is intended for the general public. Every thing will be subordinated in a proper degree to the purpose of giving good literature. It will have no special lines to which it will confine itself.

CHICAGO NEWS. The friends of literature all over the country are waiting for the new Scribner's Magazine with a great deal of interest. We fully expect to see this new periodical take its place immediately at the head of American magazine literature.

NEW YORK JOURNAL OF COMMERCE. No recent announcement has given more pleasure to the lovers of high and pure literature than that which promised the early appearance of Scribner's Magazine.

PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER. The prospectus indicates that the bright anticipations will undoubtedly be realized. Good reading this! Scribner's Magazine is destined to receive a very cordial welcome, and, what is more, it deserves it.

CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN. The cover for the new Scribner's Magazine, designed by Mr. STANFORD WHITE, is simplicity itself, and good judges pronounce it precisely what a magazine cover should be.

CINCINNATI COMMERCIAL GAZETTE. The type will be a handsome open-face long primer, made for the magazine, and especially adapted for people who read in the cars, or are beginning to think of using glasses.

NOTE.—The Magazine will hereafter be published on the first day of the month of which it bears date.
