

c) for a strength of up to one brigade in the case of field training/full strength exercises or more than 600 but not more than 1500 soldiers in the case of command post exercises not later than eight weeks prior to commencement of the manoeuvre and/or exercise,

d) for a strength of more than one brigade in the case of field training/full strength exercises or more than 1500 soldiers, in the case of command post exercises not later than sixteen weeks prior to commencement of the manoeuvre and/or exercise.

2. The plans for the conduct of manoeuvres and other training exercises shall contain the information specified in the Annex, which forms part of this Agreement.

3. In the plans for the conduct of manoeuvres and other training exercises the authorities of a force shall designate those units of less than battalion/regiment strength in the case of field training/full strength exercises or less than 600 soldiers in the case of command post exercises that are to be deployed to the Federal Republic to participate in manoeuvres or other training exercises. To the extent that such deployments have not already been approved pursuant to Article 2, the authorities of a force shall be notified of any objections of the competent German authorities in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 8. Additional agreements may be concluded.

4. At the request of the authorities of a force, the competent German military authorities may conclude agreements with the respective authorities of the Länder of the Federal Republic on simplified procedures for notification of exercises. Local training arrangements
