

3. If a Party seeks to suspend or cease cooperation or suspend or terminate this Agreement based on paragraphs 1(a) or 1(b), either Party may request consultations within 30 days of the notice referred to in paragraph 2 to consider whether the violation was deliberate and to propose corrective measures. If the Parties determine that the violation was not deliberate and that corrective measures would be appropriate, the Party seeking to exercise its rights shall provide the other Party with an opportunity to take corrective measures that are satisfactory to both Parties within an agreed period of time.
4. If a Party seeks to suspend or cease cooperation or suspend or terminate this Agreement based on paragraph 1(c), either Party may request consultations within 30 days of the notice referred to in paragraph 2 to establish a timeframe for compliance.
5. If the Party responsible for taking corrective measures or for complying with a decision of an arbitral tribunal or with this Agreement fails to do so within the agreed period of time referred to in paragraphs 3 or 4, the other Party may proceed with the exercise of its rights under paragraph 1.
6. Consultations under this Article suspend the time required for the notice of termination referred to in paragraph 2.

ARTICLE 11

Physical Protection

1. The Parties shall apply, within their respective jurisdictions, all necessary measures to ensure the physical protection of nuclear material, material, equipment, and technology subject to this Agreement, including, as a minimum, the levels of physical protection of nuclear material as recommended in IAEA Information Circular INFCIRC/225/Rev.5, as amended from time to time and as accepted by both Parties once they have informed each other in writing that they accept such amendments.
