

Business of the House

Then we will take item No. 6 on today's order paper, the resolution concerning the National Housing Act; then item No. 3, the resolution concerning the Trans-Canada Highway Act; then item No. 2, the resolution having to do with the Fisheries Improvement Loans Act; then item No. 7 on today's order paper, the resolution concerning the Federal-Provincial Tax-Sharing Arrangements Act; and then item No. 9, the resolution preceding a measure to provide for the appointment of parliamentary secretaries to ministers. Monday will be private members' day. I am afraid I cannot give any further information about next week at the moment. We may be able to arrange for an external affairs debate.

It being three minutes after ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
