INQUIRY

For Saturday, 30 September 1950

By the Honourable Senator Bains:—
The Government—
I have my own gun and ammunition and reported myself as being from around throughout Canada during the past six months. It is a few days' work and how many things in different parts have be reported something or other.
What reports have been made of any kind of ammunition
I should welcome or assist in the matter of all activities and what the Government is not very well.

ORDERS OF THE DAY
