

11th January, 1930.

E. W. Beatty, Esq., K.C.,
Chancellor,
McGill University.

Dear Chancellor,

I am this morning in receipt of a communication from the Secretary of the McGill Society of Toronto in which he asks that I approach you with a view to obtaining your consent to address the Toronto Graduates some Friday or Saturday evening before Lent begins on March 5th next.

He says "he would be the only speaker and as you know we don't require any long or set speech, so we would make the task as agreeable as possible. We intend holding it at the Royal York Hotel" and he asks for an early reply.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
