Abino Creek, in the county of Lincoln, empties itself into lake Erie, in the township of Bertie, at the head of the bay, east of Point Abino.

Abino Point, in the township of Bertie, on lake Erie, is nine or ten miles west of Fort Erie.

Addington County, is bounded on the east by the county of Frontenac, on the south by lake Ontario, to the westernmost boundary of the late township of Ernest Town; and on the west by the township of Fredericksburgh, running north 31 degrees west, until it meets the Ottawa or Grand River, and thence descending that river, until it meets the north-westernmost boundary of the county of Frontenac; this county comprehends all the islands nearest to it.

Adolphus Town is situated in the bay of Quinte; it is bounded southerly, westerly and northerly, by the waters of the bay; and easterly by the township of Fredericksburgh, in the midland district. The courts of general quarter sessions of the peace are holden here annually, the second Tuesday in January and July.

Aldborough Township, in the county of Suffolk, lies to the west of Dunwich; it is washed by the Thames on the north, and by lake Erie on the south.

Alempignon Lake lies to the northward of lake Superior, and between it and the mountains which bound the Hudson's Bay Company, and New South Wales to the southward. It contains several small islands, and is about the size of lake Nipissing.
