New Home For Immigrant

Girls Blessed by Arch-

A long-felt want was filled yester day afternoon when St. Philip Nerl Hostel, the new home for Catholic immigrant girls, was blessed and formally opened by his grace, Archbishop Mc-

Preparations for the event had been for some weeks in progress, and when the moment arrived at which the doors were thrown open to the friends and benefactors of the institution, comfort, rder, brightness and above all the artistic home touch were everywhere vis-

The ceremonies began in the large asembly hall, where, after a few intro-luctory remarks by Rev. Dr. Burke, president of Catholic Church Extension, the archbishop, wearing his purple cas-sock, biretta and surplice, began the prayers prescribed for such occasions. His grace and assistants then moved thru the different halls and apartments, making a special stay at the tiny chapel where the white altar and beautiful statue of the Sacred Heart were already in position. Choice flowers, lighted tapers and colored floats added to the beauty of the ministrum same. to the beauty of the miniature sanc-

Delivered Address

Returning to the hall, which was packed with interested spectators, the archbishop gave a most happy address. After offering sincere congratulations and expressing his delight at all he had seen, his grace told of beginnings in the same direction in far away Vancouver. Three years ago a lady from England had called upon him there. She was traveling for the purpose of finding out exact conditions regarding tles for the purpose of becoming acquainted, but who had failed. He asked for a cultivation of the stranger and the warmer interest for those who come to make their homes in our midst. Held Reception.

THE SUNDAY WORLD

The opening of the Ontario Jockey Club spring meeting was a great society event. There was a scene of splendor not rivaled at any similar function on the continent. The Sunday World has made a feature of the opening day crowd for the coming week's issue. These pictures show the best of newest things in gowns, and there's a fine variety of them. Other picture features are the motor cycle races,

Queen's Own at Montreal, and the 48th Highlanders at Barrie The front page of the Magazine Section is devoted to splendid fashion plate in four colors for the June bride, while the other features consist of two short stories, a page of humon musical and literary notes, and an embroidery design.
