

her letters to Albert, 131
 on the caterpillar, 287
 superstitious veneration Sardinia, 328
 extracts from his Sea-311
 of trees food for sheep,
 from Isabella to Albert 174—from colonel Skene
 earl of Tweeddale 210
 found to sustain silk 170
 lord Milton, 1
 use in the management
 worms, 179
 destroyed by rooks, 328
 joy, a tale, 144
 new invented im-
 ments in, 146
 ery, effects of water on,
 204-235
 s, discovery of a new kind, 335
 a city in Africa, notices
 cting, 16
 s of lord Milton, 1
 ic gas prejudicial to silk 176
 a hint by, 151
 ion of eels, 10
 Jurd, memoirs of, 1
 l substances affording food animals, examples of, 166
 moral reflections by, 22-61-6
 laneous observations, 97
 nter's reply to Thunder-234
 reflections by Mira, 22-61-6 d history of the tiger, 41—
 the fox, 253—f the oustie-165—of the white bear, 195
 river, discovered to flow
 ward, 19
 thoughts on the production 67—plants that are peculicalculated to produce it, 63
 ion of animals, disquisi-
 on, 161
 comparative trial of the dif-
 nt kinds of 243
 vations on the viper, 5

Observations, miscellaneous, 97
 Other and others, grammatically
 classed, 266
 Ousiti, account of, 265
 Own, grammatically classed, 267
 Pangolin, anatomical account of, 162
 —lives on mineral substances, ib.
 Pennant's zoology, extract from respecting the viper, 320
 Pfiffer, general, his plan of Switzerland, 302
 Phenomeon, singular, respecting the generation of the viper, 5
 Pholades eats stones, 166
 Pigeons, on hoating of, 58
 Political progress of Britain, review of, 212
 Popularity, essay on, 280
 Population in a barren country,
 how to increase, 29
 Pronouns personal, observations on 120
 Peculiarities affecting the pronouns of the first and second persons—GENDER 123—NUM-BER 125—CASES 126—another unobserved variation of, 127— affecting the pronoun of the third person only,
 —GENDER, singular number 194—plural 197— an unobserved case 199—derivatives from personal pronouns 240—table of ditto 244—another ditto 249—other, and others
 their place in grammar'signed, 296—self and selves, 267—
 Own 272—this, that, these, those, 272
 Query respecting fruit trees, 334
 Reflections moral by Mira, 22-61-325
 Reptiles and Insec's, observations
 on, 291
 Remarks, detached, 61 257
 Revenue laws, destructive consequences of, on the population of the Highlands, 30 Review,—political progress of Britain, 212
 Rhodes, miss Henrietta, on silk
 worms 170
 Rolli, Paolo, curious anecdote of, 84
 Roman Arcadia, account of, 228
 Rot in sheep, remedy for, 336
 Salt laws, their effects on the revenue in Scotland, 26

index.

Sardinia particulars respecting, 328
 Self and selves, grammatically
 classed, 267
 Sheep, remedy for the rot in, 336
 Silk worms, how to guard them from the effects of dampness in India, 73—observations on by miss Henrietta Rhodes, 170—black silk worm, 173—foul air destructive to them, 176—how to prevent its pernicious effects 177—an easy method of cleaning them, 177
 Skene colonel, his letter to the
 earl of Tweeddale, 210
 Snake phenomenon respecting, 291
 Society of Arcadia at Rome, account of, 81
 Spain, its remarkable fertility
 in former times, 28 Spallanzani, his experiments on fowls, observations on, 164
 Spinning machine, improvement in, 147
 Switzerland, a plan of, in relief, account of, 302
 a Tale, Love and Joy, 144
 Tallow and lacquer trees introduced into India, 36
 Taste in architecture, essay on, 53
 Taste, on the influence of on domestic and social life, 113-156
 —on the happiness and glory of nations, 225—on exalting
 the pleasures of rural life, 308
 Thunderproof's essays, remarks
 on, 284
 Thunderproof's reply to Misobrontes, 103
 Tiger, account of. 41—instance of one being tamed, 45
 Timothy Thunderproof's reply to Misobrontes, 103
 Toads found in stones, 160
 Tombuctoo, a city in Africa, discovery of, 14
 Tournier abbe, his account of the Roman Arcadia, 81-228
 Trees, remarkable, 332
 Viper, hints on the generation of, 320
 Water, on the effects of, on driving machinery, 204-250-314
 Water alone sustains human life, 167
 Watt's estimate of the expense of