

- NORTH ATLANTIC FISHERIES, International difficulties, British protection, 113-46.
 Bays, dispute with U. S., 114-22, 140-1.
 Bait question, 122-34, 141-2.
 Lobster question, 136-40.
- OSTRICHES, Protection of, 44.
- PARIS RESOLUTIONS, 1916, 350-4.
 Objections to, 353-4.
- PARKIN, DR., Nationality precedes unity, 204.
- PEACE ARRANGEMENTS, Paris resolutions between Allies, 350-4.
- PHILLIPS, SIR LIONEL, Control of colonies wanted, 272.
- PHRASEOLOGICAL INEXACTITUDES, Misleading effect of, 205-6.
 Dangers of, 305-6.
 Empire, 302.
See Empire as a Whole; The Unity of the Empire; Empire Resources.
- PYTT, WILLIAM, His sycophanny, 295.
- POLITICAL RELATIONS, CANADIAN, Involved in naval policy, 149.
 Borden's London conference, 1912, 151-3.
 Claim for voice in Councils, 151.
 Reply of British government, 152-3.
 Borden's resentment, 153.
 Borden's speech in Commons, 153-4.
 Harcourt's reply to Borden, 153-4.
 Discussion of, 197-200.
 Sir Frederick Pollock's opinion, 198.
 Canada's refusal to give advice, 237-9.
 Consideration of, after war, 318.
- POOLOCK, SIR FREDERICK, View as to Imperial Federation, 276.
 Proposal for Council of Advice, 308.
See Political Relations.
- PREFERENTIAL TRADE, See Balfour's (Lord) Committee.
- PREPAREDNESS, Expenditure of various countries, 17-8.
 U. K. prepared for sea—not for continental land-struggles, 27.
 Relation to policy, 256-7.
 Necessity for in future, 315-6.
 Production of war supplies, 316-7.
 Standardization, 317.
 Empire resources, 317.
 Empire food supply, 317.
- QUEBEC CONFERENCE, See Federation of Canada.
- RECIPROCITY NEGOTIATIONS, See Treaty-Making Power.