· Tankard Rinks Curl Down to the Semi-Finals ·

It looks like Granites and Lindsay for the Tankard final this year, tho you cannot tell how Sarnia and Collingwood will act this morning. Last year Lindsay only finished two up on Collingwood in the first round, and then Flavelle & Co. proved no match for Rennie and Wilson in the semi-final.

In fact, a year ago the only hard game the Granites had in the finals was the first with Queen City, their margin being only three shots. Should Granites and Lindsay win this morning, they'll play the final this afternoon at Victoria.

The most pleased man after yesterday's play was J. D. Flavelle. It was the first time he used the men together that he won with twice yesterday, and his second player was new to Torontoice, but the big borrow didn't worry him any more than the rest of them. The veteran was especially tickled because it is this Tankard playing team that he is taking west, and prospects look bright to get in the jewelry in Winnipeg.

Eleven teams were knocked out in the main eyent, seven in the morning and four in the afternoon, the survivors left to battle this morning in the semi-finals being as follows:

Toronto Granites v. Sarnia at Queen City.

Lindsay v. Collingwood at Victoria.

The announcement from Tulsa, Okla, that Carl Morris has been taken in hand by a man who is willing to spend money that Choynski and Armstrong may be engaged to instruct the big fellows. may be engaged to instruct the big fellow in the art of self-defence, is encouraging. It is also clear that Morris will soon shake the dust of Oklahoma from his brogans and start east in search of soft marks and easy money. Morris realizes that as "the new hope" he has a chance to clean up a fortune even before he tackles Jack Johnston, and he intends to get busy with a bushel basket. F. B. Ufer, who has become Morris' new manager, isn't going to hurry the giant into a match with the negro champion. He says Morris must learn much by experience before taking the chance.

Sarnia—F. H. Cox, W. Nichol, A. Lasehinge, Col. McKenzie J. McPhillip, H. Watson, R. Fawcett, Dr. Hayes, skip to hurry the giant into a match with the negro champion. He says Morris must learn much by experience before taking the chance.

I Love to Curl

The following poem by Robert E. Knowles, preacher and curler, of Galt. was read by the author at the close of his brilliant impromptu address at the smoking concert last night at the Granite

I do not care to curl at all,

If only winners be
The men who do their brethren maul
The most successfully.
I do not wish to curl unless
The game is lots of fun,
E'en tho your tall be motionless
Before that game is done.

And curl for scalps alone,
With brow all furfowed like the Alps,
With many a secret moan, With many a malediction deep When your opponent's stone
Around the guard doth gently creep,
And butteth out your own.

I do not care to curl if I
Perforce have got to grouch—
The man who puts them thru, too fly;
The man who "hogs," a slouch.
I want to cheer the sorry skate
Who does the best he can:
To tell him soon he'll get the weight,
Just like the Rennie man.

IN FAST GAME BY 7 TO 4

Are New Winners of Their Group -Many Games Played in All the Leagues.

Broadviews won their intermediate district last night when they defeated Eatons by 7-to 4 in an exceptionally fast game at the Mutual-street rink. Only a fair crowd were on hand, and those that were there got their moneys worth. Two new men were on the Eaton line-up, in Kent and McGee, who play in the Store League. The game opened fast and right up until full time there was something doing all the time. Eaton's scored first from a mix-up in front of the goal, McGee doing the trick after about two minutes of play, and at half-time it stood three to one, for the institute crowd with the play about even. The second half started off just as fast as the first, but Broadview were playing better hockey towards the finish and deserved to win.

Woodcock, Lowrey and Strype were Eaton's best, while P. Reesor, Smith, Johnston and L. Reesor were in the limelight for Broadview.

Foth Bowles and McCrudden put up exceptionally brilliant exhibitions in goal. The teams lined up as follows:

The teams were very evenly matched, and this was the keenest tussle of the season here. The play of the visitors was exceptionally good, and their long shots on goal and swift rushes elicited keen admiration. TThe close checking of the Whitby men prevented a larger score. With a lead of four goals Whitby hopes to win on the return game at Markham Thursday night.

Edmunds had seven stitches put in his lip after being cut with a stick at Galt on Saturday: Frood and McGregor of Berlin served penalties in the first half, and Sanford and McDonald for Brantford in the second half. In the last few minutes of the first half the Dutchmen outclassed the visitors and secured a safe lead, but after Berlin had the score 13 to 8, Brantford played hard to win out, and Berlin were lucky to leave the fee as victors. Stalker of Brantford and Siebert of Berlin officiated, giving the teams fair satisfaction. The teams were.
