FLOUR PRICES UP

WINNIPEG, Man. Aug. 10 .-

WINNIPEG, Man. Aug. 10.—All prominent milling companies have raised the price of flour 10 cents per sack or 100 pounds, and 20 cents a parrel of '96 pounds. The new price went into effect yesterday at noon, but all of yesterday's billings were made at the old rate. The increase is due to the rise in the price of wheat, October option being particularly responsible.

in the matter of live stock. We have shown that The Globe has been misleading the public when it pretended that the wider market would give the Ontario farmer a better price for his products. We showed that the home market for horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, hams, bacon, fresh fruits, vegetables was higher than that of the United States, and therefore that the wider market, instead of being a wider market in which to sell Ontario products, was a wider market of competition against Ontario barley. We propose for to-day to leave the answer to Ine Globe in the matter of beans to The Ridgetown Dominion, which is published in the centre of the bean-growing industry of Oatario. The editor of The Dominion knows what he is writing about;

he knows all about beans and the people who grow beans, and where the beans are sold, and where the competition against

Ontario beans comes from; and we ask our readers who are following this reciprocity discussion to read the article of the Ridgetown paper, as printed below. It shows The Globe guilty

he will get the whole of the 45 cents duty per bushel which the American government proposes to take off under reciprocity. It absolutely suppresses the fact that the difference between the price of beans in the two countries is not at the greatest more than 25 cents, and therefore, even if The Globe's theory were true-and we say it is not the Canadian farmer would only get

25 cents more, instead of 45 cents, because it is not the price of beans in Canada plus the American duty that makes the price that our beans will fetch in the United States, but the price of beans which actually prevails in the States, and the price is never more than a little over 20 cents higher in the States than

But The Globe also suppresses another thing which is of the utmost importance to the bean growers of Ontario, who are all prosperous farmers, and it is this: that under the favored-nation clause, with the removal of the 25 cents per bushel protection which Ontario bean growers now have, the bean growers of

Because he would rather die than live, hounded as he was by daily ternor, was Frunk Griro's reason for shooting Frank Tarro, at the corner of Church and Front-streets, on Sunday, July 30 last. Then, haunted by the dread of vengeance at the hands of the brother of the man, whom he had killed Griro kept his promise to the police and gave himself up at the Agnes-street station last night at 9.55. He had posted this letter from Detrok, on August 5.

This note was received at the Agmes-street station on the 6th and Griro made good last night. He declared that no trouble regarding Rosa Brunet had anything to do with the shoot-

An Oath of Vengeance. An Oath of Vengeance.

Being kept informed of the movements of the Italians in Toronto, he had heard that the dead man's brother had left in pursuit of him under a vow to seek him to the end of the earth and cut him to pieces. Hearing this, even after he had written the letter, he fied wildly and almiessly from Detroit to Chicago, to St. Louis, from which place he returned equally desperate to seek shelter in the hands of the police.

"I'm Frank," he said on entering the station. "I'm the man who shot Tarro. I told you I was coming and here I am; come for sentence."

Griro came direct from Detroit, where he took refuge a few days after the shooting affray. He was a member of the Black Hand society and that organization tormented him day and night, demanding $5 and $10 at a time to keep quiet.

Griro said he had over a hundred dollars at the time he left Toronto and last night had only $21.10 left. The rest was used to keep the society quiet and in railway fares.

"I've got a lot to tell about the Black Hand," he went on. "There's a lot of them who should be arrested."

After being searched, he was taken to Inspector Duncan's office, where he was cross-examined for three hours. He is stated to have made revelations regarding Black Hand bands in Toronto and elsewhere, which will doubtless prove of great worth to the police.

From Station in Hack.

Just when Griro intended to return was unknown to the police. In his letter he merely stated that he would return and give himself up at the place he deld. He arrived at the Union Station and went to Agnes-street in a hack, for which he paid before entering the station.

Sergeant Snyder of Agnes-street is tation said last evening that the prisoner walked quietly into the station. He told who he was and put up his hands as if to swear to his identity and also that the officers might search him.

The provinces have been clamoring for control of their natural resources ever since their establishment, the cash subsidies granted in lieu of the natural resources having always been regarded as insufficient. Hon. Arthur Sifton of Alberta, and Hon. Walter Scott of Saskatchewan, were in consultation with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in regard to the proposed transfer prior to their departure for the west. Mr. Scott, who was detained at the last moment last night, goes west to-night. Insiders in Ottawa profess to have been looking for a campaign coup of this sort, and argue that it shows the government to be uncertain of the popularity of reciprocity in the west. The negotiations have not reached a conclusive stage and depend, it is said, upon the result of the canvass in the west.
