

"Some Thanks Is Right"

Speaking with a gentleman a few days ago on the subject of this year's Thanksgiving Day, our ad man said, "We sure have a lot to give thanks for this year," and the gentleman with fervor and an exultant ring in his voice said, "Some thanks is right."

During this terrible war our ad man has never used any war subject to make matter for advertising, nor will he do so, but on this occasion he can be pardoned for saying that the Allies are likely to have Turkey for Thanksgiving Day.

To our designer who has made it possible for us to show such splendid Suits and Overcoats we extend our thanks sincerely. He has hit the nail on the head with such force that style, beauty and patterns are one in the showing.

SUITS for young men, with plenty of pep and go in them, $18.00 to $45.00.

SUITS for men, just a little older, but still young, $20.00 to $50.00, and for men of all ages, the same price range. We are a wonderful suit home.

OVERCOATS—We don't believe you will find a showing like ours anywhere with a variety of patterns and prices that make easy picking, from $18.00 to $60.00. The man who buys now will have much cause for thanks later on, because prices will surely rise.

By J. F. B. Livesay.
With the Canadian Forces, Oct. 10.—The Hun has never perpetrated more ruthless nor more unprovoked vandalism than the destruction of Cambrai, now in progress.
"France can never forget nor forgive this," remarked a French officer, with tears in his eyes. "Torch in hand he comes offering us peace."
We stood early this afternoon in Place d'Armes, a great public square, when the Canadians entered today. It was practically intact. Now it is like unto Ypres. All of ruin. At 9 o'clock explosions began and have continued ever since. All day in every part of the town there were explosions of incendiary bombs with time fuses attached, and these were followed immediately by outbreaks of fire. In one short street a dozen houses simultaneously burst into flames. The Hotel de Ville, the Bishop's palace and other buildings were blown to pieces.
The cathedral still stands, but with the ruined chancel only. There is left the great bell tower out with fire lapping its base. As the hours went by the universal character of the holocaust developed. The sun was obscured and seemed like a fiery ball in the smoke and the thick dust of falling walls.
The Canadian engineers sought to penetrate the conflagration by dynamiting the buildings, but the flames broke out from this, however. Cambrai tonight is a smoking ruin. There remained in the city Father Theze, priest of the Church of St. Etienne. Two days ago he was ordered to evacuate. He refused because he had to attend to a dying woman. They threatened to shoot him, but he persevered, and today he was caring for civilians who had hid for 10 days in cellars.

PRaise AND BLAME FOR WILSON'S NOTE

Senator Lodge Attacked in Senate for Issuing Statement Criticizing It.

Washington, Oct. 10.—President Wilson's note of inquiry in response to the German peace proposal was praised and attacked today in the senate.
Senator Pittman of Nevada (Democrat) opened the debate that lasted several hours by criticizing Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, a Republican leader, for issuing a statement commending unfavorably upon the president's action. The Nevada senator agreed with the statement of the leaders in congress who have discussed the matter for publication in approving both the president's refusal to propose an armistice while the Germans are on invaded soil, and the inquiry addressed to the German chancellor. He said the action of the Republican leader would tend to destroy confidence in the president.
Senator Lodge replied, protesting his disappointment that the president did not reply that nothing short of unconditional surrender by the enemy would be accepted, and his belief that the note opens the way for negotiations with the German rulers, with whom the president has said the United States cannot deal. A similar view was taken by Senator Poindexter (Republican) of Washington, who expressed the hope that, if necessary, England and France would refuse to grant an armistice until Germany had surrendered.
No word came to the state department during the day indicating that the president's note had reached the German chancellor, but it was assumed that it was delivered thru the Swiss foreign office probably some time yesterday. The fact that the chancellor, Prince Maximilian, is to address the reichstag Sunday, led to the belief that the prince would have his reply ready by that time.
Evidences that Turkey is crumbling and already is almost, if not quite, out of the war, continued to appear in reports to the department. There was no confirmation, however, of rumors that the Ottoman government had proposed surrender nor any explanation of the delayed appearance of the Turkish note said to have been sent simultaneously with those of Germany and Austria.

THANKSGIVING WEEK-END LAKE TRIP SHOULD BE GREAT FLU CHASER.

At this season of the year, and particularly now, when all hands are up in the air, or when one is endeavoring to sidestep some form of chilly ailment, there is no healthier course than a couple of hours on the steamer crossing Lake Ontario. Every man wanting good, substantial, life-giving fresh air, absolutely necessary for toning up and putting pep and vigor in a languishing system, should take advantage of the Niagara-St. Catharines fine holiday fares, and get away on the Dalhousie City, leaving Yonge street wharf 5 p.m. daily, except Sunday, for St. Catharines and Niagara Peninsula points.

REFUSES TO VARY NEWSPRINT ORDER

Commissioner Will Not Consent to Retroactive Clause Being Left Over.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Pending the decision of the newspaper appeal tribunal in the matter of the appeals of the publishers and also of the manufacturers from the recent order of Commissioner Pringle fixing new prices for newspapers, the order issued by the commissioner will not be varied. That is the feature of a judgment given by Commissioner Pringle this afternoon following a motion made by representatives of the publishers to have the increase in price stand in abeyance until the appeal tribunal has rendered a decision in regard to the retroactive clause of the order providing that the increased prices shall date from July 1, the commissioner in his judgment today made a recommendation that the publishers desiring such privilege be right to make their payments during a period extending over three months.
In the proceedings before the commissioner the publishers were represented by P. D. Ross of Ottawa and J. E. Atkinson of Toronto. Mr. Ross is requesting the commissioner to vary his order increasing the price of newspaper from $2.15 to $3.45 per hundred pounds, stated that it was the intention of the publishers to appeal and to pass their appeal with all possible speed. He said that this suggestion would be in accordance with ordinary judicial procedure. Apart from this, however, many publishers were finding it difficult to meet the situation. These difficulties would be lightened if they were given a longer period in which to take the necessary steps to increase their own revenues.

Manufacturers Opposed.
George Montgomery, K.C., on behalf of the manufacturers, opposed the request of the publishers. The manufacturers he said, were making newspaper at a price which yields them no profit. Some were selling at less than the cost of manufacture. He declared that the commissioner could not vary his order, because the order-in-council constituting the appeal tribunal provides that the commissioner's orders remain effective until appeals are disposed of.

J. F. Orde, K.C., on behalf of the P. B. Eddy Company, said that as the manufacturers as well as the publishers were entering appeals it would be advisable to let matters take their course.

In giving judgment, Commissioner Pringle said that no good purpose could be served in discussing the merits of the question because the order was an interim order, subject to appeal within 30 days. He agreed that the terms of the order-in-council provided that his orders should remain effective until appeals are disposed of. The commissioner stated that having a period of 16 months the mills had been supplying newspaper at an average cost of $52 per ton, which did not give them much profit. He referred to the judgment given by the appeal tribunal across the border, stating that evidence had been adduced to show that the increase in the cost of newspaper production had been anywhere from $4 to $10 per ton since April 1. In closing he made suggestions as to payments arising out of the retroactive feature of his order already referred to.
