MUCH DRUNKENNESS FOLLOWS GLASGOW'S "DRY" NEW YEAR'S

London, Jan. 6.-In Glasgow on New Year's Day not a single public house or licensed restaurant was allowed to be opened under threat of confetures.

In spite of the closing of the public houses, the police returns for drunkenness were heavier than ever, indicating that Glasgow citizens anticipated the magistrates' order by getting in large stocks of drink beforehand.

In fact, one enterprising publican turned the closing of his house to good advantage. He advertised that on receipt of a postal order for 3s 4d he would deliver free to any address a bottle of whiskey on New Year's Day. The plan is reported to have been quite a success as an evasion of the legal obligations under the new act.

For January. Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Merchandise To be Turned Immediately Into Cash.

HE negotiations for the purchase of the site of the old Knox Church, immediately west of the store, culminated, as our readers know, in the securing of the property. While we are not yet in a position to publish the exact details of the new building, we print to-day a fair idea of the change and improvement it will make in the long familiar appearance of the southwest corner of Queen and Yonge Streets.

Important Announcement

STORE CLOSES DAILY AT 5.30 P.M.

And now we come to the immediate emphasis of our announcement to-day. We inaugurate Tuesday, January 9th, an all-embracing Mid-Winter Sale of thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise which must be turned into ready cash at once.

Think of the motives which combine to make this Sale and you will realize its extraordinary importance.

1st-Our building operations will require cash. 2nd-We will still further be cramped for room before the readjustment can be completed.

3rd-Mild weather has left our stocks unnaturally high in spite of the great increase of business. 4th-Stock-taking occurs at the end of this month.

And so we have determined to double our business during January. This is to be a sale of quick, instantaneous appreciation on the part of the public. We have work to do and little time in which to do it. Our prices will tell the rest of the story, for we have made economies such as everyone may realize at a glance.

December, 1903. sold quarter interest to Timmins Bros. and Dunlap, the defendants, $3850. The defendants, it is alleged, represented to LaRose in May, 1904, that a certain syndicate would offer $100,000 for the mine and asked La Rose to sell his one-qurater interest.

Instead of the mine being sold, it is alleged that the defendants retained LaRose's share for themselves and paid him out of the proceeds of the ore. Mr. LaRose has also taken out a writ against Duncan McMartin of Montreal. He claims a half interest in the mining location J. B. 4, which adjoins the celebrated LaRose mine on the north side and is also on the railway. He demands an account of profits.
