MR. FLATT'S CONDITIONS

Asks That Streets Be Macadamized and Walks Laid - Other Happenings.

W. D. Flatt has notified the parks board that the conditions of his offer, of several acres of land at the head of Garth-stret, for park purposes, are that the streets should be macadamized and walks laid and that the city should spend $300 a year for ten years in beautifying the park. The matter was referred to a sub-committe. It was decided to call for tenders for the building of a pavilion in Dundurn Park. The board decided to remodel the band house for this purpose.

Railway Board.

the complaints of the city against the street railway company and of the beach commission against the radial railway, were heard. The city complained against the street railway company widening the devil strip between its tracks on Herkimer-street without permission. The company contended that there was no by-law preventing it from doing so, and the board reserved its decision on the matter. The beach commissioners wanted the radial railway compelled to repair the roadway about its tracks on the beach, according to a by-law which so far has never been observed. The board fixed Sept. 18 for the hearing of the case.

Henry Smith, a Toronto man, created a sensation in police court this morning by crying and gesticulating in an unusual manner when found guilty on several charges of theft.
