

Four of a Kind is Good

But we have a straight suit; that's better. For a man who wants clothes. Arguments are all right, but cold facts, particularly in August, are more to the point. Read these prices: Double-breasted Unlined Blue Suits, sizes 36 to 42, regular $10 suits, for $6.50. Balance of unlined suits at less than cost. It's too warm to give you the full list. Broken lots are too small to advertise.

BIG FIRE IN QUEBEC.

The Chouinard Building on Dalhousie Street, Quebec, Quebec, was reduced to ashes last night. The first story of the building was occupied by Messrs. O. Jacques, provision merchant, and P. G. Bussiere & Co., dry goods. The upper stories were occupied by Messrs. J. A. Bussiere, J. C. Kahan, and E. H. Bussiere & Co., manufacturers. The building was a large, modern structure, and the fire was caused by a gas stove in the kitchen. The fire spread with great rapidity, and the building was completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $100,000. The insurance companies are expected to pay the loss.

LONDON FIRM SUSPENDS.

G. A. McMillan & Co., of London, England, have suspended business. The firm was one of the largest in the world, and its suspension is a great loss to the world. The firm was founded in 1850, and had a long and successful career. The suspension was caused by financial difficulties. The firm's assets are being liquidated, and its liabilities are being paid. The suspension is expected to last for some time.

A REVIEW OF THE SESSION.

London Times Criticizes Both Parties and Predicts Early Dissolution. The session of the British Parliament has just closed, and the London Times has published a long and detailed review of the session. The review is a masterpiece of journalism, and it is a great pleasure to read it. The review is a masterpiece of journalism, and it is a great pleasure to read it.

Smashed the Windows.

John Noonan and his wife Mary, who say they live at 10 St. John's Street, London, England, were arrested last night by P. C. Crowder on a charge of doing damage to the windows of the Sunway Orphanage. The couple paid a visit to the institution to see their children, and when they were told that the children were not there, they smashed the windows. The couple are expected to be charged with criminal damage.

Is on the Half-Pay List Now.

London, Aug. 7.—Lieut. Geo. Cornwallis West, who married Lady Randolph Churchill, has been temporarily placed on half-pay in consequence of his mental condition. The question as to whether he would retain his title has been referred to the War Office. The War Office is expected to make a decision soon.

Mr. Sloan's Movements.

London, Aug. 7.—Mr. Sloan will sail for New York next week, and will be accompanied by his wife. The couple are expected to spend some time in New York, and then to return to London. The couple are expected to spend some time in New York, and then to return to London.

FURTHER DETAILS OF

SUNDAY'S BATTLE

WITH THE CHINESE

THE FIRST BATTLE WAS WON.

ALLIES ADVANCED UNDER HOT FIRE

AND RAN THE CHINESE

TRENCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The World's correspondent, Frederick Palmer, cables the following from Chefoo, and it is printed in an early afternoon edition of the London Standard.

THE CHINESE WERE AT PEITANG

WHEN THE ALLIES, AND THE FIRST BATTLE

WAS WON.

THE FOREIGN TROOPS ARE NOW IN POSSESSION

OF THE CHINESE TRENCHES.

There was fierce fighting. A strong force of Americans participated. It consisted of the 9th and 14th Regiments of Infantry and Kelly's Battery and the marines. They were a great success. The Chinese were driven back. The Chinese were driven back. The Chinese were driven back.

THE CHINESE WERE DRIVEN BACK

FROM THE TRENCHES ON SUNDAY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—A despatch, dated at the camp of the allies, Peitang, is printed to-day. Some facts appear as follows:

The expedition moved slowly because it was found that the Chinese had placed many mines and torpedoes in the Tel River.

The Japanese in the advance were struck by a force of the enemy near Tien Tien, and a skirmish followed. The Chinese fought well, and the Japanese suffered a loss of 32 men. Then the Chinese retired upon

Peitang.

ALLIED CHINESE WELL ARMED.

Sources reported that three guns and many smaller cannons were in place in the Chinese entrenchments at Peitang. A spy had gone out to the Chinese lines, and had seen the guns. The Chinese were well armed, and strongly entrenched.

ON BOTH SIDES OF THE RIVER.

The American and British troops matched up the river bank, and the Chinese troops were seen to be in the water.
