COURT ENTERS PEKIN
WITH BARBARIC SHOW
Traditional Defication of Chinese
Royalty, Completely Efficad, Chief Significance.
A CRUSH OF FOREIGN SPECTATORS
Dowager Empress Face Bore an Appealing Look, Indicating Anxiety for Safety.

Pekin, Jan. 7.—The return of the Chinese Emperor into Peking to-day was the most remarkable episode in the annals of the dynasty, save the flight of the Chinese court which Peking was bombarded by the allied forces.

PARKER RAPS KIPLING
FOR CHANGE OF FRONT
Declares Justice and Truth Have Been Sacrificed for Mere Poetical Effect.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—"I do not hesitate to say that I think Kipling has produced a sensational poetical effect at the expense of truth and justice. That he has done it honestly, I believe, he is wiser after the event."

REGARDS STAND AS A JOKE.
Mr. Parker did Kipling the honor of talking seriously about him. He was not equally well received by the Review. When asked to comment on Stead's recent article praising the future of the United States, he would only say: "Oh, Stead must be regarded as a joke. He is one of our greatest popularizers of amusement."

WANT NATIVE TARS.
British Complaint That Vessels Are Being Used to Replace Foreigners on British Ships.

PAUL JARVIS.
Halifax, Jan. 7.—By tomorrow or Thursday the men of the C.M.S. will all have received their cattle and the work of packing stores on the troopship Manhattan will commence.

NEW WING TO BE READY
BY EARLY IN FEBRUARY
Toronto Members Will Have a Room for Themselves in the Enlarged Parliament Buildings.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—"Plasterers are now giving the finishing touches to the new wing of the Parliament Buildings which has been under construction during the recess. Quite a number of hands employed upon the work were discharged to-day. This is evidence that the progress made is satisfactory and that the new rooms will be ready for occupation at latest by the second Thursday in February."

PENSIONS FOR EMPLOYEES.
Minister Blair Contemplates Their Introduction on the I.C.R.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—It is learned that the Minister of Railways and Canals some time ago made up his mind to have a system of pensions established for employees of the Intercolonial Railway. The report has not yet been placed in the Minister's hands, but those entrusted with its preparation are said to have formulated a scheme very much on the lines of the pension scheme in vogue on the French national railway system.

RAILWAYS IN MANITOBA.
Rumor That the Northern Pacific
Will Acquire Operation There.

Winnipeg, Jan. 7.—The Free Press tonight says: "There is a probability that the Northern Pacific will again own, control and operate a system of railways in Manitoba. Yesterday some gentlemen who were in the city were talking over the possibility of a line to be built from Emerson thru Rosefield and northward to Portage. As a result of this conversation, the Northern Pacific was reported to be in the market for the Northern Pacific, yesterday they completed arrangements with the Manitoba government for $7,000,000 to acquire the system. It is reported that the Northern Pacific has been in the market for the system for some time. Further developments in the matter are reported in a few days."

HON. S. BLAKE NAMED
FOR SUPREME COURT
Hon. David Mills Not Likely to Be Allowed to Leave the Cabinet.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—The death of Mr. Justice Gwynne makes a vacancy in the Ontario representation on the bench of the Supreme Court of Canada, and it is altogether likely that Hon. Sam Blake, brother of the Hon. Edward Blake, will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

SIFTON IN WEST DURHAM.
Speaks at Orono in the Interests of
R. Beth of Bowmanville.

Orono, Jan. 7.—The first public meeting in the present campaign in West Durham held here to-night in the town hall in the interests of R. Beth, ex-M.P., of Bowmanville. The meeting was held in the town hall in the interests of R. Beth, ex-M.P., of Bowmanville.

THRILLING FALLS RESCUE.
River Man's Wit Saves Friend From Going Over the Brink.

Nagara Falls, Jan. 7.—Fred Truesdell had a narrow escape from death to-day. He is an old river man and was out duck hunting when his boat caught in the ice. He could not reach open water, but floated down stream with the ice. William Hill, his partner, was in the boat with him. Fred Truesdell caught the rope and pulled across to the ice and then the water to shore, but his gun and ducks went over the Falls. It was one of the most thrilling rescues ever made at the Falls.

Experienced by the British.

Gen. French Reports That Only an Elaborate Police System is Needed There.

London, Jan. 7.—Lord Kitchener, telegraphing from Johannesburg, Monday, Jan. 6, reports the occurrence of a number of skirmishes in various parts of the war field. The Boers were defeated at Amersfoort, Jan. 3, and Jan. 4, when Major W. H. P. Plomer and Col. J. Spens were in contact with Commandant Kitchener's force and Commandant Opperman's commandos and drove the Boers from their positions, after a considerable fighting during which the Somerset Light Infantry suffered severely.

WILLING TO CEDE LAND.
Amsterdam, Jan. 7.—The Boer leaders here are holding daily conferences. After one of these meetings yesterday, Boer Agent Wessels said: "We are not in a position to make any territorial concessions. But we will not surrender our sovereignty in what is left." Mr. Wessels further stated that former President Kruger and Dr. Leyds were in favor of the cession of territory.

HONORS FOR CHURCHILL.
New York, Jan. 7.—The Herald says: "The appointment of Mr. Winston Churchill, M.P., to a vacant seat in the Queen's Own Oxfordshire Hussars, Imperial Yeomanry, to fill the vacancy which has been caused by the promotion of the Duke of Marlborough, to the rank of major, is announced. Mr. Churchill wears more decorations than any other man in the regiment."
