BASEEALL. The luck of London held good again

yes. rday afternoon. Up to London's fifth inning it looked as though the cutting comb of the proud Cockneys. But it was not to be. The Stratfords blamed Umpire Kelly. Some of the decisions were a litle close. Stratford kicked a good deal, and in the fifth, when McConnell was given safe in a close decision at the plate, Manager Popkay took four minutes and firty-nine seconds to decide whether or not he would take his dolls and go home. He didn't go home. He stayed, and in the seventh inning tied the score. But London got ahead again in the last half of the same inning by an error of Shortstop Barber. That ended the scoring.

The Stratfords have the elements of a very strong team when they have found themselves and each other. They certainly possess some excellent batting material, as the round dozen of hits secured off Seivers and Price would show.

Why Manager Popkay saw fit to take Habel out of the box in the middle of the fifth is about as much of a conundrum as the wherefore of Seivers being replaced by Price during the third inning. But the ways of baseball are past finding out. Habel pitched good ball until the fifth. His base on balls to Cope in the second eventually nell's single and Seivers' long fly to center. In the fourth Babbitt tried to Stolen bases-Howells, Carey 2, Cope 2, Mc I Wuzn't." stretch a single to a double, but was thrown out at second by Hemphill.

The wrangle over the umpiring occurred in the fifth. McConnell, who, by the way is batting splendidly, made his second clean single and stole second and third very daringly. Howells received his usual free pass. Then occurred the play that caused the trouble. It was a play that is seldom at-tempted. McConnell came home on Howells' steal of second, the ball was sharply returned to Spranger, and it looked exceedingly like an out, but Umpire Kelly gave it safe. Popkay was warm-quite hot, indeed-and thances of the game being concluded tooked very slim. Kelly was firm. "I'll give you five minutes to get in the game." he said. Popkay waited till the last second and came down. To add to Popkay's discomfiture, Habel hit Mohler with a pitched ball, and then allowed two runners to advance a base, and McFadden to take first on a palk. This filled the bases. Carey came out brilliantly with a triple to center, and was thrown out at the plate in attempting to score on Jones fly to left. Cope hit safely in the sixth, took second on a passed ball, third on a sacrifice, and scored on an error by to Pitcher Callahan, of the Chicago Handiboe, who failed to handle a club. W. W. Laidlow, quartermaster, thrown ball.

But the Poets Made Things In- gift from Barber. With two men out and Carey on third, Barber fumbled score. In the fifth, after Carey's three-bagger, Stumph finished the inning. But Miller opened the sixth and finished the game.

Through an error of Babbitt's, and Seivers' wild throw, Stratford scored in the second. With two out, Seivers 1. threw wildly to first, allowing two runs to cross the plate, Habel scored the third run by a safe hit.

After Seivers had given Gunther his base in the third, Price went into the box. Handiboe sacrificed; Spranger took a free pass, and some stupid base-running followed. Eddy hit safely to left, scoring Gunther. Spranger stuck fast to the second bag and Eddy also went on to second; Jones threw to Cope, and the latter returned the ball to McFadden, easily putting out Eddy. In the seventh Price was hit for four singles, two of them being scratch Poets ould have the honor of first hits to short. On Egan's hit, both Barber and Spranger scored. This tied the score. In the ninth inning, after two of the Poets had gone down, two pretty hits were made to left field. Egan's fly in the same direction was taken by Jones, closing the game.

Lohman relieved McConnell in the sixth inning:

Weekday games would not draw well, as the people are poor and Sunday is their national holiday. The Cubans are great bettors, that is, those who have money. > THE BIG FIGHT. New York, May 23 .- The Fitzsimmons-Jeffries fight is to take place at night instead of the afternoon on June The directors of the Coney Island Sporting Club held a meeting last night and decided on this change. Mr. Brady said that 53 boxes had been sold, the total sum paid for them being $7,950. Frank Dwyer has received $5,000 to bet for westerners on Fitzsimmons at odds of & to 5. WHAT JIM SAYS.

Jim Corbett is credited with saying: "If Jeffries is successful in his fight with Fitz I will re-enter the ring and fight him for the world's championship. I will fight one more battle before I retire, but it must be for the title that I lost. Brady has promised to give me a battle with Jeffries, should he receive the decision in his coming fight."

MISCELLANEOUS. BIG DICE GAME.

One of the biggest dice games that ever took place in Cincinnati came off in a Vine street cigar store a few days ago, when some passenger men shook the box for $1,400. This amount was not really up in cold cash. If it had been some of the men who were shaking the box would probably never have lived to see the end of the game, or, if they had, their nervous systems never would have recovered from the shock. As it was, two of the principles in the game were laid up for repairs. A party of about 100 people were to go east from Cincinnati on a special train, and it meant $1,400 in revenue to the road that carried them. The representatives of the various roads decided to settle the question of which road would carry the party by shaking the box. The Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern man won and was cor-respondingly happy, as his line got the business.-St. Louis Republic.

MIDDLESEX VS. SOMERSET. London, May 23.-Some sensational cricket playing was witnessed today at Lord's, in the match between Middle-sex and Somerset. The latter was dispatched for the ludicrous total of 35 runs. Herne, a Middlesex bowler, taking 5 wickets for 14 runs, Finally Middlesex won by an inning and 7 runs.

A SOMNAMBULIST

Trait Which Kept the Plausible Man in Hot Water.

"Gentlemen, I am a somnambulist," he said, "as was my father before me. My father loved liquor not wisely, but too well, but in spite of that fact he brought his wages straight home Sat-urday night. Gentlemen, just as regularly those wages were missing on Sunday morning. My father put them away somewhere or other in his nightly sleep-walking trips, and they were never found again.

"With this inherited tendency it is no wonder that at an early age I was found walking along the road three miles away from home one night, fast asleep, with a watermelon under each arm; or that later on I was rudely awakened one night while innocently walking in the vicinity of a bank, upon whose safe, unfortunately for me, as it happened, there was suspected to be some designs by wicked burglars.

"All through life, gentlemen, this distressing nervous malady, as the best physicians have come to term it, has pursued me, and I may remark in passing that it is one of my peculiarities to always dress myself from head to foot before setting out on one of these unconscious nocturnal rambles.

"Now, about these valuables. I do not deny that I may have taken them. do not deny that I may even have hidden them in the bottom of my trunk, but if I did so it was in this manner. I retired at my usual hour, and sank into a profound slumber, in the midst of which I arose, still asleep, ONDON.

For-tunately, I say, because without that, Batteries—Bowell and Criger; Kill-bottom of my trunk, these things er and Bergen. wished to change to my heavier under-wear next fall. For the temporary inconvenience this has occasioned me I have no regret, only being pleased that the gentleman so soon and so happily cames, into his own. This, gentlemen, is the explanation of the mystery. It is somnambulism entirely. Simply a hereditary somnambulism."

But the jury were skeptics, and sent him up.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

Piles for 15 Years.

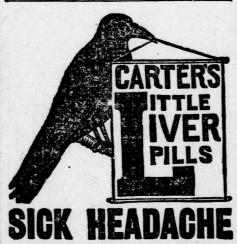

Mr. Jas. Bowles, Councilor, Embro, Ont., writes: "For over 15 years I suffered the misery of bleeding, protruding piles. The many remedies I tried all failed. I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and must say that the first application gave relief, after the third day the bleeding stopped, and two boxes cured me completely.' The latest means of advertising theaters and newspapers in London is to send up stationary balloons at night with large letters painted on the outside and electric lights within.

PENALTY OF TALKING.

A sharp watch over the tongue is necessary in Germany nowadays, a careless remark easily brings the speaker under the heavy hand of the law. Only Only the other day a workman attending the father's funeral was overcome with grief as he turned away from the grave, and sobbed out: "Farewell, we shall never meet again." His words were reported to a magistrate, who summoned the workman for an outrage against public morals by denying the immortality of the soul, and sentenced him to fifteen days' imprisonment .-Spare Moments.

Spring Weather Weakness

Try as you may, you cannot escape the weary, worn out, don't care-to-work feeling that accompanies spring weather. Trouble is, the system is so loaded with impurities that every organ of the body is impaired.

Brain is not as clear as it ought to be; there is languor and listlessness instead of energy and activity.

Burdock Blood Bitters is what people need this weather.

It sets the liver, bowels and kidneys acting, whereby all poisons are eliminated from the system; cleans the tongue, improves the appetite, purifies and enriches the blood.

MISS MARY J. IRWIN, Holland, Man., writes:

"I have used Burdock Blood Bitters as a spring medicine for three years now and don't think there is its equal anywhere. When I feel drowsy and tired, and have no desire to eat, I get a bottle of B.B.B.

"I think it purifies the blood and builds up the constitution better than any other remedy."
