LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Mrs. C. E. Bernard, of the Hotel Savoy, has gone to Buffalo to visit her sister, Mrs. Duncan.

—Mrs. A. Winslow, of 230 Waterloo street, is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. A. Knox, of Port Huron, Mich.

—Misses Lizzie Potter and Alberta Anthony, of St. Thomas, were the guests of friends in this city yesterday.

—Miss Minnie Fox, 32 Elmwood avenue, South London, has returned home after spending the past three months as the vocal pupil of Madame Von Feltzsch, of New York.

—Mr. Charles H. Johns, late manager of the St. Thomas street railway, has been appointed superintendent of construction and electrical work for the Southwestern Traction Company in St. Thomas. Mr. Johns was for several years with the London Street Railway Company.

—Mr. Charles Grigg, son of Mr. Samuel Grigg, of this city, is now the proprietor of the Hotel Mitchell, one of the leading hostleries in Olympia, Washington State. Mr. Grigg, Jun., left London fifteen years ago since which time his father has not once heard from him directly. Yesterday, however, a letter came from Mr. J. C. Apple, a former Londoner, informing Mr. Grigg, Sen., that his son is now located at Olympia, where he is doing well. Mr. Grigg will shortly visit the coast.

—A meeting of the congregation of Christ Church was held in the Sunday School room last night, the rector, Rev. R. S. W. Howard, presiding. A statement of the financial standing of the congregation was presented by Mr. J. W. Rowlands, people's warden. The statement showed satisfactory progress. Plans for the work of the coming year were discussed, and much important business was disposed of.

After the meeting an inspection of the recent improvements in the basement was made by the congregation. A short musical programme was given by the church choir under Mr. Charles Percy.

BIG PAYMENT ON DEBT.

The debt of the First Methodist Church was reduced by $7,850 yesterday, when Mr. S. W. Abbott, treasurer of the church, paid that sum on the mortgage. A year ago $7,500 was paid off. The debt upon the church it now $6,500, and it is expected that this will be paid off next year.

STEVENSON—GAGE.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Gage, eldest daughter of Mrs. E. Gage, of Newbury, and Lawrence L. Stevenson, druggist, of this city, was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's mother at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, by Rev. Mr. Ashton, of Bothwell. Miss Lillie Gage, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the groom was ably supported by Mr. Harry Weeks, of this city. The duties of ring-bearer were performed by dainty little Miss Cleda Hicks, of Glenora. Miss Mae Stevenson, sister of the groom, played the wedding march.

CELEBRATED WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Michael, 317 Bathurst street, was the scene of a pleasant celebration, when Mr. and Mrs. Michael celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Twenty guests were present and enjoyed a dainty supper, after which Rev. Walter Moffatt and others made speeches suitable to the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Michael responded in an appropriate manner. Among those present was the bridesmaid of twenty-five years ago, Mrs. William Shilling, of Buffalo.

BENNETT'S BIG BILL.

Have you seen Bennett's bill this week? Evidently the management are straining every point to give more than value to the patrons of the house. The bill is a credit to the house and should pay to capacity at every performance.

Max S. Wit's four singing collections give one of the most artistic offerings ever seen here. The solo work of Miss Hattie Sims McCarthy is exquisite. For those who wish to laugh it would be hard to find a better refined comedy sketch than Uno Clayton and company. The act keeps the audience in an uproar for fully 30 minutes. As a distinct novelty Henry and Alice Taylor stand alone in their respective lines of work. The shooting done by Miss Taylor is marvelous, and is worth going to see. Woodward's sea lions perform some wonderful feats of juggling. The show as a whole is the best seen here for some time, and the management deserve much credit. As next week is the last of the season, the advance sale is unusually large. The best bill of the year is promised.

GUTHRIE-PAISLEY

Pretty Wedding in Presbyterian Church in Ilderton.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church, Ilderton, on Tuesday, April 30, when Miss Lily Edythe, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paisley, was united in marriage to Mr. John H. Guthrie, of Dresden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Johnston, pastor of the church, who was assisted by Rev. Mr. Ballantyne, of London.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a robe of silk Brussels lace over white tulle. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by three bridesmaids: Miss Annie Loft, of Ilderton, who wore a gown of white silk; Miss Agnes Milroy, of London, in pale pink, and Miss Margaret Kennedy, of Ilderton, in pale blue. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations, and wore a black picture hat. Little Miss Emma Paisley, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The groom was supported by Mr. F. J. Paisley, brother of the bride. The ushers were Mr. E. D. Grant, manager of the Sovereign Bank of Ilderton; Mr. C. W. Kennedy, Mr. J. McLaughlin, and Mr. W. Wilson, of London. Miss Emma Cattermole, of London, rendered very acceptably Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Miss Nellie Robson, soloist of the Presbyterian choir, sang sweetly.

The reception was held at "Clear View Farm," the bride's home, and after a dainty wedding breakfast the happy couple left for Toronto, Montreal and other eastern points. The esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends was in evidence by the numerous and valuable presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a lovely set with pearls, and to each bridesmaid a pearl stropkin.

On Saturday evening, May 4, Mrs. Guthrie will receive at the residence of her parents, before leaving for her new home in Dresden.

THE ENGLISH PICNIC

Another Enthusiastic Meeting Held in West London

An enthusiastic meeting of Englishmen took place at St. George's School, of West London, last evening. Mr. Essery was in the chair.

Reports showed satisfactory progress. Many ladies were present, including Miss Violet Hayson Lehr, who kindly volunteered to play some piano solos.

Another surprise was the presence of Dr. J. M. McIntyre, the blind organist. His performance was highly appreciated.

Mr. Essery, in the course of a patriotic speech, caused much amusement by announcing a baby show, with Aid Cooper as chief judge. Aid Cooper accepted the position.

Mr. Essery, of the sports committee, reported progress. He assured all present that there would be nothing to disturb the peace of mind of anyone on the day of the picnic. The watchword would be "peace and pleasure."

The meeting closed with the singing of God Save the King, in which all joined most heartily.
