QUERIES ANSWERED

ONTARIO: Q .- Three or four years ago the town council bought two lots intending to use same for a dump. The neighbors and myself protested against it. The council then sold the lots to another party making an agreement with him to use the said lots for a dump. dump.

Now, owing to the stuff dumped, the water cannot sink there, and is forced on my place, lying on it till into July spolling it for gardening purposes. For twenty-five years previous to this dumping there never was a crop missed on this land. This spring the water was over four feet deep at my entrance, and remained flooded for about six weeks, this never happened before. When spoken to over the telephone the medical health officer said nothing but clean ashes would be put in, but this summer they have dumped all kinds of stuff, dead chickens, dogs, cats and bloody paper from the butcher shops, decayed vegetables, etc. The owner of the lots raked this paper and other stuff together and burnt it, the smoke and smell from which compelled people in the neighborhood to keep their doors and windows closed to shut out the smell and smoke.

1. Had the town council power to shut out the smell and smoke.
2. Had the mayor power to sell these lots privately without the consent of either the council or ratepayers?
No.
3. Can the council or board of health water and of the product of the pro

MANY BRAVE WEATHER

TO VISIT PORT STANLEY
ON LAST HALF HOLIDAY

Despite the fact that it rained nearly all day Wednesday many people went to Port Stanley in the evening. This was due greatly to the fact that yesterday was the last half holiday of the year.

There were many people at the casino and anyone looking at the dance floor would have thought that instead of old Sol being behind the clouds as he had been all day he had been shining brightly. It was very cool and and the wind was blowing hard, but the light-footed ones did not notice this fact, overcoming it by keeping the fact that day elected president of the Causal as a series of the control of the contro

Particularly well done was the Rheinberger Quartet, which was played in a musicianly manner, and the Andante Cantabile (Tschaikowsky) was marked by the smoothness and colorfulness of the tone achieved.

The break in the machinery of one of the generators at Niagara Falls has been found to be more serious than was at first expected. The result is that London, with other places, again suffered yesterday from a reduction in power. Many housewives with their
