Baking Powder is one of the most important food ingredients. Alum or other injurious acids are frequently used by some concerns to lower the cost of production.

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

It is a pure phosphate baking powder and is guaranteed to be the best, purest and most healthful baking powder possible to produce.

W. Matthew Williams, in "Chemistry of Cooking," says: "Phosphates are the bonemaking material of food and have something to do with building up of brain and nervous matter."

But they did of fect to being deprived of opportunity of going into the agreement in detail. Parliament might be concurring in turther and more serious errors. He reminded the House that during the dis-cussion of the Grand Trunk bill last November the Government had voted down Mr. Fielding's amendment, which urged the Government to make exhausturged the Government to make exhaustive inquiry through experts into the real assets of the rallway. If the advice of the Opposition had been heeded the present bill would not have been necessary. At that time the Government had rejected his suggestion that before the bill was read a third time it should be resubmitted to the House in committee. The Opposition could not support the present bill as it stands because the effect was to commit Parliament to registering approval of an

In view of the great number of letters which the Op-position desired to examine, he sug-gested that the Government should not press second reading immediately.

Dr. Reid asked whether the Opposition would be willing to go on with the bill tomorrow. If so, Mr. King might adjourn the debate.

Mr. King accordingly did this, and he House rose for the dinner hour.

APRIL 19th to 24th "Let's Show Canada How!"

TUESDAY, the 20th, A BIG PARADE

Starting the week with a display of the fine spirit of co-operation existing between the various business interests of London, a great parade will assemble on the Market Square on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30, and will start promptly at 5 p.m. Route will be announced later.

There will be many beautiful large floats, representing different manufactures of London, besides some retail stores and other lines of business endeavor. Some will be humorous-all will be worth seeing

-each will demonstrate, in its own particular way, the excellence of some Canadian product or service.

A prize will be given for the best manufacturer's float, the best retailer's float, and the best decorated auto of Canadian make. Scores of gaily-decorated autos will be in line, besides bands and other

Floats, to compete, must be in place on the Market Square by 4:30, otherwise the entry will not be eligible for a prize.

Thursday, 22nd-Costume Carnival Plan to Enter Win a Prize

A costume contest has been arranged for one evening towards the end of the week, and many prizes will be awarded for the most original and handsome costumes, representing the Made-in-Canada spirit or some nationally-advertised article. Look over the newspapers and magazines and plan a clever costume representing some well-known advertised figure, and win a prize.

The costume carnival will be held down-town, and will be a gay Mardi Gras event, at which all-young and old-are entitled to enjoy themselves to the limit.

There will be scores of good prizes for costumes, and they will be well worth winning. The prize list will be published later. Plan costume now, as hundreds of others are doing.

Big Contest All Week HUNDREDS OF

In every store participating in the big Made-in-Canada Week you will find the windows displaying the red, white and blue pennant of the London Advertising Club, and the goods will be labeled with green maple-leaf price tickets.

On Monday next, and all through the week, these stores will each have a supply of printed lists of questions for the women of London to answer. Go to the store you deal with and get one of these questionnaires. Take it home, and answer it to the best of your ability, then turn it in to The Advertiser or Free Press office.

It will be collected from there with the others turned in, and will be judged by a competent, impartial board of judges, who will award prizes for the best sets of answers-neatness to count. Write in ink, and sign name and address very plainly.

There will be over two hundred prizes for this event, so everyone has a good chance. The results will be made known at a huge mass meeting to be held early the following week, announcement of time and place to be made in a day or two.
