TO HURRY UP "EX" ENQUIRY.

Controller Church, who tried last December to get the exhibition inquiry in motion again, will make another effort. He believes that any further delay will have a prejudicial effect on the next autumn's dog.

Dog Catchers at Stanley Barracks.

The dog catchers swooped down on Stanley Barracks yesterday afternoon. They surprised an unmuzzled canine, the property of one of the non-coms, that had strayed beyond the outposts, and lugged him off as a prisoner of war.

Colonel Williams of the Dragons promptly repelled the advances of the invaders from the government reservation, and issued orders to his men to fortify themselves behind a rapid investment in muzzles.

The enemy in retreating, however, had their revenge, for they ambushed Col. Williams' own pet on the Strachan avenue bridge.

King of Toronto is the son, and the daughters are Mrs. Wilbur, Mrs. Dr. Bowles of Washington and Mrs. C. A. Johnston of Buffalo.

At Worcester, Mass., Jean Paul (Henry) Prenderville, who arranged more than 2000 musical pieces, mostly for bands and orchestras, aged 62.

Removal of Station.

The city engineer will get together the necessary information as to "damages and inconvenience" for presentation to the Dominion Railway Board, in support of the proposal to remove the G. T. R. South Parkdale station to the junction of Queen and King streets. This is a result of Controller Church's activity in furtherance of the request of west end residents in that regard.

To Locate a Station.

WINDSOR, March 24.—(Special.)—The railway commission met in Windsor to-morrow morning in reference to locating the new M. C. R. tunnel station, which has been the cause of dispute between the company and city for about a year.

Johnson Still Out on Bail.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion pugilist, appeared before Judge Mulrooney in the general sessions to-day, signed a renewal of the bail bond on which he was released yesterday and made a little speech on the status of the case against him, growing out of his alleged assault on James J. Braddock, a fellow-African. The complainant, whose absence yesterday caused Judge Mulrooney to declare his court was being trifled with, and to raise Johnson's bail to $5000 from $1000, was still missing to-day, and not being able to find Johnson told the court that he did not know where to find him and sincerely hoped he would be able to find him and settle and he could get back to his theatrical work. He said that if his plans for the immediate future were not settled, he would have to leave the city. After the acceptance of the bond Johnson was released and he got the $1000 cash bail he had deposited when first arrested. Afterwards he said he expected to leave in the 3 o'clock train this afternoon for Chicago.

THE OPPORTUNITY OF A DECADE

Householders, Students and Music Lovers Eager to Test the Claims of the Mason & Risch Great Stocktaking Sale.

Splendid Instruments at Half and Less Than Half-Price Shown to Be Actual Fact.

Many who read the initial Mason & Risch stock-taking sale announcements could hardly believe that the Mason & Risch stock would be substantially reduced in price, as the reputation of the firm for moderate charges and ample value-giving at all times is well known.

As the sale advanced, however, skepticism changed to belief, and belief to unbounded enthusiasm, as customers passed from instrument to instrument in the company's King-street warehouses, and inspected the large tags giving the regular price and the special sale price of each piano.

Splendid upright pianos quickly sold as low as $247 and upwards. Fine used pianos cleared at $170 and upwards.

For Saturday the offerings are even more tempting, as much room has been created on the sales floor for greater bargains from storeroom stock.

The spirit of a disposition to close out every instrument in the whole big building permeates every department and the story of Saturday's business is awaited with interest by all who are presenters years of desire on the part of many a Toronto home, will then be the story of its selection of education and entertainment in the happy days of its new owners.

Saturday evening until 10 o'clock the big warehouses will be in the hands of the special sales staff, extra salesmen being on hand to give personal attention to every inquirer. Visitors cordially invited. No obligation to purchase. Address Mason & Risch Piano Company, Limited, 32 West King-street. List and prices furnished promptly by mail to out-of-town customers.

Sporting Notes.
The 25th annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen will be rowed on the Potomac River at Washington, Aug. 16 and 18, instead of July 29 and 30, as formerly announced.

At Louisville, Bob (Robert L.) Tucker, well-known horse owner and trainer, died suddenly at his home of heart failure.

At Oakland, Cal., John Thompson was given the distinction over Charlie Norvall of Butte, Mont. Thompson brought out to his hands the horse he had ridden four rounds, but could not land the knockout punch.

Francisco Willie Hoppe won the first block of his 18.2 billiard match with Ora Morningstar, 500 to 400.

The 1000 ft. race, selling, of $500, was run at Englewood, France, yesterday and won by W. K. Vandenberg's Marceau.

The Prix d'Almarche, handicap of $1000, Eugene Fischer's Indian Prince finished first.

At Vancouver last Saturday, Dorando Pietri finished first in a 15-mile three-cornered race, winning with the least effort. St. Yves, the Marathon champion, and John Marsh, the Canadian, Marsh dropped out in the ninth mile, and Dorando led the field most of the distance, a strained tendon in his leg making him quit. St. Yves and Dorando landed in the lead for the next five miles, and then in the last mile the Frenchman stopped to tie his shoe. Dorando took a lead of a gap of half a lap and it was all over. Dorando led to the end and won by half a lap. Time 1:27:25.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Whistman's Association, the first in 15 years, will be held Saturday afternoon next at Room F, King Edward Hotel, at 3 o'clock. Officers will be elected and several amendments to the constitution will likely be passed.

Fritz Ward, a well-known tennis player, died yesterday morning committed suicide by shooting himself thru the breast and once thru the wrist, the bullet cutting wrists with a razor. He had been suffering from melancholia since the suicide of his wife, four months ago. Mrs. Ward took poison while dependent over her husband's death.

Stanley Barracks Football Club will be in line with the T. & A. again this year as usual.

The Empire League may be revived this season, with Geneva, Auburn, Seneca Falls, Lyons and Canastota as members. Penn Yan is mentioned as the sixth town and it is proposed to establish a league of five towns, with a meeting to be held in Geneva soon to discuss plans.

Automobile Speed Races in Florida.
DAYTONA, Fla., March 24.—A drenching mid-day rain marred the final day's program of the Daytona Automobile Speed Races. No records were made, the 200-mile race, the feature of the day's program, the 200-mile race, for a $5000 trophy, had to be cancelled owing to the rain.

In the one mile speed race, none of the racers were able to approach the record, which was set by Barney Oldfield, Summary:

One-mile time trials—Oldfield (Benz), 27.85; Kirschner (Darracq), 27.74; Christie (Christie), 22.15.

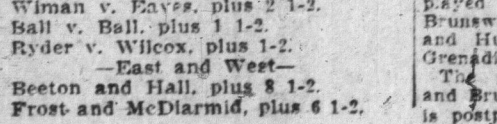

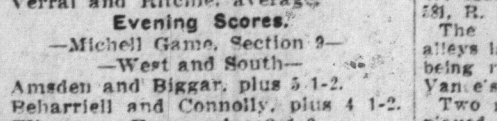

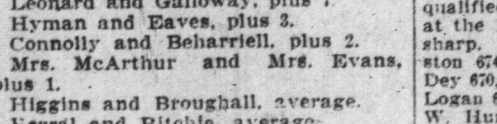

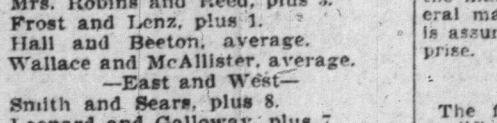

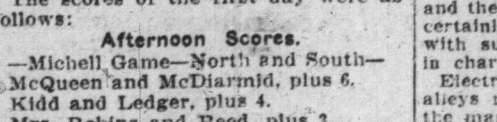

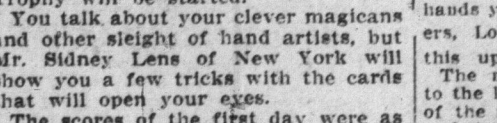

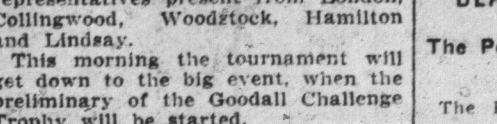

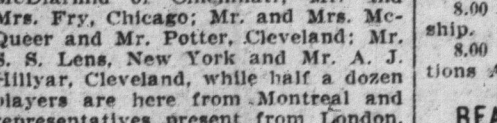

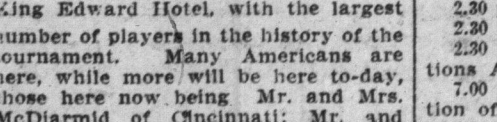

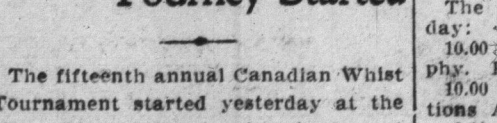

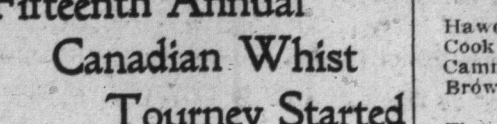

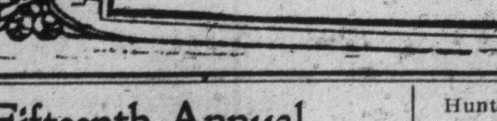

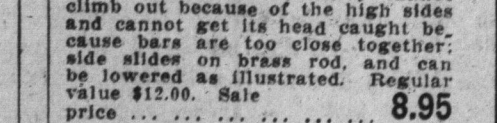

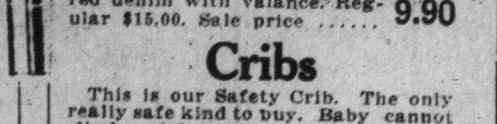

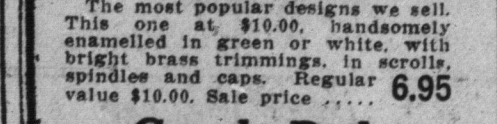

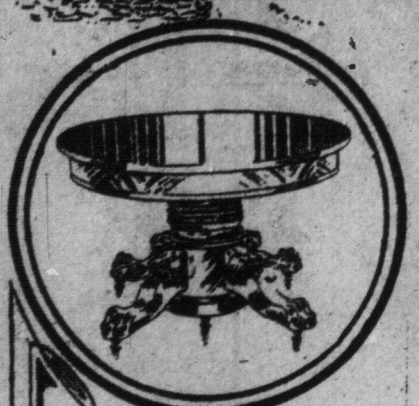

Another one-mile handicap was won by Altman (Ford). Time 12.45. Oldfield (Knox) was second and Kirschner (Darracq) third.

Ketchel Gets Decision.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 24.—Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion of the world, did not win a popular verdict of a draw in his six-round bout yesterday with Frank Klaus, a local boy, before the largest audience ever gathered together under the auspices of the Pittsburgh National Sporting Club.

For the first three rounds Klaus led repeatedly without return by Ketchel. The last three rounds were slow and uninteresting. Klaus holding on to the ropes, Ketchel, evidently unconditioned even for such a short distance.

Jack McDougall, the National Club, Philadelphia, refereed.

Weston Has Trying Day.
CORLISS, Kan., March 23.—Yesterday was the most trying day Edward Weston had since he left his home in Los Angeles on Feb. 1. The mercury revolved around the 90 mark most of the afternoon, and as a result Weston was overcome, and he was not able to give a mile west of Locomotion he fell to the railroad track overcome by the heat. Afterward he carried him into the shade where he rested thirty minutes before resuming his journey. Again three miles east of Locomotion he staggered. His assistants saved him from falling. When Weston reached here his pulse was high.
