In Fair Game at Fredericton Yesterday.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 17—The football match here this afternoon between teams representing St. Joseph's College and the U. N. B. resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 7 to 5. It was not a very exciting game and both teams showed evidence of lack of practice.

The U. N. B. team had the best of the first half and made their score before the referee's whistle blew for half time. A very exciting the will be and entire change of pictures, songs and specialties by the Elliott sisters. The new pictures will include a very funny one entitled Lena and Her Beau. ### WALL STREET

It is refreshing to hear of some one winning money in the market these times.

According to the Star's Wall street correspondent, "J: Brandt Walker, the newest Napoleon of Wall Street, wrote 'Finis' on the last page of his gilt-edged memorandum book yesterday afternoon, and announced that he thought he would be able to winter quite comfortably upon the $6,500,000 he has cleaned out of Wall Street since last St. Patrick's day. Mr. Walker's since last St. Patrick's day. Mr. Walker's bear plunges during the present slump alone have netted him $3,000,000. That was alone have netted him $3,000,000. That was upon his arival from Saratoga, where he conducted a Wall Street campaign that poured $500,000 into his coffers, already bulging from the famous March raid, through which he sat in an armchair at a Lakewood, N. J., hotel, directed operations by telephone and cleared two millions. Coyly slipping out to Chicago between times he beat the seasoned Ritters out of $500,000 in bull wheat, and it was the grand total that gave Mr. Walker courage yesterday to close up business and turn his face to the oncoming snows with a reckless smile.
