"There's a Reason"

At this week's luncheon of the Halifax Rotary Club, Rotarian Bell reported that the amount subscribed by the members of the club to the Supervised Playgrounds Commission was $228, and thought that the $100 mark would be reached.

As the amount needed for the play station was thought to be about $500 and as the sum subscribed was not quite $400, Rotarian C. E. B. suggested that in case of a deficit he would be glad to subscribe the balance and several other members also suggested their willingness to aid in getting this piece of apparatus.
