THE MASSACRE OF A NATION

(Bangor Commercial.)
We have recently received a copy of the report made by Viscount Bryce to the British government relative to the atrocities against Armenians in the Turkish dominions. It is a book of nearly 700 pages filled with the testimony of survivors and of those who witnessed the horrors. It is a book to the conclusion that not only have the previous reports not been exaggerated but the half has not been told.
While all the world has been shocked by the reports of the slaughters of the defenceless Armenians and horrible atrocities committed against them, it is probable that many have considered the reports to be grossly exaggerated. But the evidence collected by Viscount Bryce and his associates cannot be controverted.
They have collected evidence from thousands of witnesses and these seen at different places and at different times give corroborative evidence, that is explicit and in detail and could not have been manufactured.
From hundreds of villages the Armenians were driven out under Turkish guards and in many instances the murdered men were taken away and killed and then the unprotected women and children suffered and in many instances were killed, while thousands died of starvation or the hardships of the pilgrimage. The details are too harrowing to dwell upon, but there is one impression that stays with the reader of the report, and that is the absolute conviction that the Turkish government was determined to wipe out a race, and that never have a people been so frightfully and atroci-ously treated.
It has been freely reported that approximately three-quarters of a million of Armenians were thus wickedly done to death by the Turks and the figures that have been gathered by the commission of investigation show that these reports were not far out of the way. In treating of the extent of the catastrophe the American committee reported the number of Armenians in the Turkish empire in January, 1915, to have been between 1,600,000 and 2,000,000.
The number of refugees was found to be comparative small to reach places of comparative safety. It was estimated that 1,100,000. If the estimate of the Armenian population in Turkey in January, 1915, is correct, the number of Armenians who were killed would be computed at between 450,000 and 850,- 000. It was believed that the Armenian murdered cannot be brought to life, but there can be such provisions that no such atrocities can be repeated and the Allies have already expressed their determination that such provision should be made.

KNOWS OBSTINATE

Coughs in a Hurry
A Simple Home-Made Remedy that Gets at the Cause.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hacking cough, which every year after year, disturbing their sleep and making life disagreeable. It's so needless—there's an old home-made remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly.
Get from any druggist "25c ounces of Pinx" (150 cents worth), pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. This ending a cough that you never thought would end it also promptly loosens a dry or tight cough, stops the troublesome throat irritation, soothes the irritated membrane that lines the throat and bronchial tubes and relieves almost immediately.
A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and asthma there is nothing better.
Pinx is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiac and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "25c ounces of Pinx" and follow full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinx Co., Toronto, Can.
