

ministry of our Church in the Conferences and many noble laymen for their co-operation and sympathy in this work. Without their help the success realized would have been impossible.

We cannot but refer also to the wonderful spirit of liberality which God hath poured upon the Church in this movement. Thirty subscribers consecrate nearly $150,000 to this work, in sums varying from $1,000 to $30,000. The legacy of the late Mr. Gooderham is the largest ever left to our Church for the work of God, and involves a corresponding responsibility.

And among the nearly 4,000 minor subscribers there are hundreds who have given according to their means with a princely liberality,

It is therefore with strong faith in the future of our Educational work that this report is respectfully presented for your consideration.

JOHN POTTS,

General Secretary of Education.
