ICEMAN JAILED

Atlantic City Employes Are Forced to go Thirsty as Result.

ICEMAN JAILED

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 3.—Officials and workers at the City Hall mopped their brows and glared at the ice water coolers, which were empty. "Yes," sighed Mayor Edward T. Bader, "we have no ice water. The ice man is in jail."

ICEMAN JAILED

Investigation developed that Harry Lewman, the ice man for the City Hall, had been arrested by Harry Harrison, City Sealer of Weights and Measures, who had warned him against delivering ice to the Hall without weighing it. An argument ensued and a summons was issued by Mr. Harrison, which he alleges was thrown in his face by Lewman, who was then arrested and charged with violating the ice weighing law, using profanity and disorderly conduct. The bail was $75 and Lewman did not furnish it.

COAL AND WOOD

EDMONTON, Alta., Sept. 3.—Sheriff Peter Gunn of Edmonton didn't get a bit excited the other day when he received notice of a salary raise. The notice was 30 years late. By some trick of fate the letter, telling him of the raise, had been delayed in the mails since 1894.
