HUNDRED THOUSAND IN THE WATER AT CONEY

Mercury 91, Nearly a Million Go to Beaches.

Crowds Storm the Pools—Many Places Cooked by Rays of Sun on Sunday—98 in London, Ont.—Ottawa and Montreal Swelter.

New York, July 4.—Terrific heat, coupled with oppressive humidity, yesterday caused several heat prostrations and drove the great part of the city's population to the beaches. The weather bureau reported a temperature of ninety-one degrees from two until six o'clock, while the humidity hovered between fifty and fifty-five.

Police estimates placed the attendance at three Long Island beaches at nearly one million. At Coney Island, after every available water front bath house was filled, the crowds stormed the pools until the police were called out to restore order.

It was estimated that 100,000 of the 400,000 visitors went into the ocean. The police reported 108 lost children during the afternoon.

London, Ont., July 4.—The season's record for heat was broken here yesterday, when the thermometer climbed to ninety-eight. In spite of a heavy shower a few days ago, the ground is parched, and unless more rain comes soon crops will suffer. Up to the present crop prospects were never better, and wheat cutting will commence this week, the earliest, it is said, in thirty years.

Ottawa, July 4.—The capital yesterday sweltered in the hottest day of the year. At noon the temperature was ninety-five degrees, with scarcely a breath of wind to bring relief to those who were forced to remain in the city. Last night the thermometer registered eighty.

Montreal, July 4.—This city experienced the two hottest days of the year in Saturday and Sunday, when the mercury reached 92.5 degrees on each day. On Saturday it was reported at two in the afternoon, and on Sunday soon after three p. m. Humidity on Saturday was sixty-two degrees, and yesterday sixty-seven. Rain threatened both evenings, but did not materialize.

PUNISHED FOR SACRILEGIOUS ACT
Lad Who Rubbed Dog's Nose Against Virgin's Statue Paralyzed.

A Paris despatch says:—
"A remarkable story of how a sacrilegious Italian was punished for his sins on account which, it is said, has been verified by both French and Italian doctors and priests—has just reached Paris from the front."

"While walking near Giespiana, Italy, with a friend and his dog, recently youth nineteen years old passed a statue of the Virgin in a roadside shrine. His friend saluted respectfully, but the youth took his dog by the collar and rubbed the animal's muzzle against the statue. Instantly he became paralyzed in both extremities."

"The youth was taken to his home and physicians were called in. After working over him for three days they succeeded in restoring his movements, but then a new phenomenon appeared and the boy began to bark like a dog day and night."

"Whether this is a peculiar type of auto-suggestion or a divine punishment, as is asserted by the priests, is not known, but physicians have been unable to cure the youth and have recommended that he be taken to a hospital for the insane for treatment."

"The villagers are more reverent now than before when passing the shrine, but they scrupulously avoid passing the victim's cottage without crossing themselves devoutly."

MANY KILLED IN IRISH AMUSHES
Militia Engages Civilians in Mountains After Attacks on Constables Near Dro-more.
(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Dublin, July 3.—Many men are believed to have been killed in fighting following the ambush of a police patrol by civilians on the Ballina-Sligo highway near Dro-more Friday. Seven constables were ambushed twice in quick succession by civilian parties operating close together. One of the constables was wounded and two captured. The remaining constables secured military reinforcements, who pursued the ambushers towards the mountains.
