RECRUITING NOTICE—15TH HEAVY BATTERY

Get ready for the next war—don't wait for conscription. This battery is now drilling on Tuesday and Thursday nights with a mere handful of men. It should be 120, with a large waiting list. A fine chance is offered to the older boys of the numerous cadet corps to learn how to shoot a big gun. Men with actual experience will show you how to do it. A week of real shooting in the summer at Petawawa, on the Ottawa River, follows the dummy training in the armory. Come down and have a look at the guns, and you can tell better whether you wish to join or not. C. F. INCHES, Major. 16829-12-14

THE LAST NIGHT OF BIG Y. M. H. A. FAIR
A Huge Success So Far and Tonight Should Draw a Bumper Crowd—Many Prizes and Attractions.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association is tonight closing its doors on one of the most successful days for fair ever held in this city. The beautiful decorations, the nicely trimmed booths, the lavish display of flags and bunting, superb music and lovely lady workers have all tended to make the big fair one great whirl of pleasure and interest to all who have so far visited our building.

To those who have so far not had the opportunity, we offer you tonight, as your very last chance to visit the big fair before the curtains are drawn on the one big event of the season. If you are contemplating buying Xmas gifts for your friends this season, get in early this evening and pick out some lovely gifts for your friends at practically no cost whatever.

Our ladies' fancy goods booth has some beautiful needle work and hand work left yet at ridiculously low prices. If you want to see some beautiful work that would interest the ladies, take this last opportunity of coming in and picking out your requirements for little or nothing.

The merchandise wheel will again be in full swing tonight with blankets, the nice warm winter hats at 10c each, boots and shoes, hats and caps, boxes of cigars, and endless other useful things, just the thing for Xmas gifts. If you are in the mood for a little fun, the candy booth and the candy is in great big fancy Xmas boxes. Another wheel which has been a big attraction is the flour and sugar wheel; here for 10c one may carry away a 24 lb. bag of flour, or a 20 lb. bag of sugar, a good stock of all these goods still left on hand for tonight's rush.

Out in the game room one can find all of the excitement and thrills imaginable and then some, as Way and Herman are next March to become chief engineer for the New Brunswick Telephone Company at St. John, according to a Canadian Press despatch received last night.

It has been announced that Rev. A. S. Bishop, pastor of the Fairview Baptist church, has tendered his resignation to take effect December 31. He expects to be at Hillboro church the first Sunday in January, where he has accepted a call.

A party of C. N. R. officials who are making a tour of the maritime provinces under the direction of F. P. Brady, made a social visit to city hall yesterday for the purpose of becoming acquainted with Mayor Schofield and the city commissioners. The visit to the provinces was for the purpose of meeting personally the various officials along the line and also to meet city officials with whom they may correspond from time to time. The party left last evening and will go from there to Halifax and the Sydney.

A cook book has recently been published by J. & A. McMillan of St. John, and is to be distributed by several of the women's organizations in the province. The book is a collection of recipes and is intended to be a guide for the housewife. The book is a collection of recipes and is intended to be a guide for the housewife.
